Terence F. McGuirk

Chairman and President

Terence F. McGuirk is vice chairman of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS, Inc.) and, since November 2003, chairman and president of the Atlanta Braves. In this capacity, he maintains executive oversight of all aspects of the company's Major League Baseball franchise, including player personnel, team operations and Turner Field.

McGuirk joined TBS, Inc. in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, later TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation. Since then, he has played a key role in the launch of every Turner network.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979 was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales operation. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in Major League Baseball, the Atlanta Braves. As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. Turner as chairman, president and CEO. He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through December 2003, McGuirk was chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams—the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College. He sits on the boards of trustees of The Westminster Schools and Piedmont Healthcare and the boards of directors of Haverty's, Inc., Scientific-Atlanta and the Sea Island Company. McGuirk is the 2000 recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Stewart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award.

Terry and his wife, Nancy, live in Atlanta and have four children.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman Emeritus ♦ Chairman of the Executive Committee

Bill Bartholomay, named Chairman Emeritus and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Atlanta Braves in November 2003, was previously Chairman of the Board of Directors of the team since its move to Atlanta in 1966. He has witnessed the Braves win 15 division championships (including a record-setting 13 in a row), five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another NL West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and 1998. The team won its fifth National League pennant in 1999 and division titles in each year since 2000.

Bartholomay has been involved with the team as a director or owner for 40 years. In 1962, he became Chairman of the Milwaukee Braves and led the group in moving the club to Atlanta in 1966. In 2002, Bartholomay was inducted into the Hall of Fame at Turner Field. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is Chairman of Major League Baseball's Equal Opportunity and Ownership committees. He also serves as a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, a member of the MLB Finance and Legislative committees and as a trustee of Major League Baseball Player's Benefit Plan.

In January 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of Willis Group Holdings (NYSE); Director of WMS Industries, Inc.; Midway Games; and International Steel Group. He has also served as a Commissioner of the Chicago Public Building Commission and past President of the Chicago Park District. He is a Director or Trustee of many other civic and business organizations and educational institutions throughout the country.

Philip I. Kent

Chairman/CEO Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. ♦ Atlanta Braves Board of Directors

Philip I. Kent is chairman and chief executive officer of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. His responsibilities include corporate oversight of the TBS, Inc. domestic and international entertainment, animation and news networks and businesses, which include TBS, TNT, Cartoon Network, CNN/U.S., CNN International and CNN.com. Kent has overall responsibility for all news and entertainment advertising and distribution, both domestically and internationally, as well as for all corporate administrative functions, Turner Sports, the Atlanta Braves and Turner Field.

From August 2000 to August 2001, Kent served as president and chief operating officer of CNN News Group, where he oversaw a strategic reorganization of the news business that positioned Jim Walton, now president of CNN News Group. Also during his CNN tenure, Kent initiated a sweeping redesign of CNN Headline News and the site selection, construction and implementation of a new Manhattan street-side broadcast studio, and was instrumental in high-profile hires including, Lou Dobbs, Aaron Brown and Paula Zahn.

Kent's career at TBS, Inc. includes vast international experience as president of Turner Broadcasting System International, the division charged with overseeing Turner's wide-ranging business activity in Asia, Europe and Latin America, including all sales, distribution, business development, joint partnerships and business alliances outside of the United States. At the helm of TBSI, Kent led a regionalization strategy that introduced local-language versions of CNN and the Turner entertainment networks around the globe, further strengthening the company's position in critical international markets.

Earlier, Kent was president of Turner Home Entertainment, the former TBS, Inc. division comprised of the company's home video, new media, licensing & merchandising, feature distribution and book publishing operations. Kent joined Turner in March 1993, after spending six years with Creative Artists Agency (CAA) as a packaging agent in that company's television department. He co-founded Blair Entertainment, the television syndication division of John Blair & Co. that he helped build into a major television and radio production and syndication company.

Kent serves on the boards of directors of the Ad Council, the National Cable and Telecommunications Association, the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta's Woodruff Arts Center and the Atlanta Braves.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Aaron has given back to society for more than 20 years. His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established to help children between the ages of nine and 12 realize their dreams as he realized his. The foundation gives grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports.

Aaron received the first Jackie Robinson Lifetime Achievement Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, honoring his "career excellence in the face of adversity" in February 2003.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, the Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were among those in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83.

Since December of 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President and Assistant to the President.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, Lifetime, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), ninth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and tied for 14th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three home run game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959.

Aaron, a vice president and member of the Board of Directors of Turner Broadcasting and the Braves, is also the Vice President for Business Development for the Airport Channel. He serves on the National Board of the NAACP and the Sterling Committee of Morehouse College.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Aaron was born in Mobile, Alabama, on February 5, 1934.

Note: Aaron's complete playing record appears with his retired number bio in the history section.

John Schuerholz

Executive Vice President & General Manager

John Schuerholz, who in 2004 completed his 14th regular season as the Braves' Executive Vice President and General Manager, has the longest tenure with the same organization among current major league GMs. Coming to the Braves from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, Schuerholz's time with Atlanta is about four years longer than that of the Minnesota Twins' Terry Ryan (September, 1994) and the St. Louis Cardinals' Walt Jocketty (October, 1994). Schuerholz's contract runs through the 2006 season.

Under his leadership, the Braves have achieved unprecedented success. With the best record in baseball (1,341-859, .610) over the past 14 seasons, the Braves extended their own professional sports record by winning their 13th consecutive division title in 2004.

By finishing 101-61 in 2003, the Braves reached the century mark in victories for the fifth time in seven seasons and for the sixth time since 1993. The Braves have won five NL pennants, one World Series, several organization of the year awards and have surpassed the 3,000,000 mark in attendance six times in the past 14 seasons.

During his career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, Schuerholz has been associated with three World Champions (1966, 1985 and 1995), eight pennant winners and 19 division crowns. In honor of his nearly 40 years of success at the major league level, Baseball America named him the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award in 2004.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Braves and Schuerholz. The Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized John as the National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Award in 2001 and 2002. The Braves 400 Club bestowed its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" to Schuerholz in February 2000. Baseball America honored the Braves as the most outstanding major league franchise of the past two decades with its 20th Anniversary Award of Excellence in December 2001.

As a result of the Braves' 1991 worst-to-first performance, Schuerholz was named the Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group. Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction – he became the first executive to be General Manager of world championship teams in both the American and National leagues. Since he was appointed General Manager of the Kansas City Royals in 1981, his teams have more wins (2,007) than those of any active GM in the major leagues.

Winningest Teams Since 1991

Since John Schuerholz's arrival from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, the Braves have won more games than any other team in Major League Baseball.

During Schuerholz's time with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship (1985), two American League pennants (1980 and 1985) and six division crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz as the Major League Executive of the Year in 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

Schuerholz has proven to be a man of action ever since joining the Braves. An average of about 10 new faces appear on the club's Opening Day roster each year, reflecting offseason transactions and the maturing of farm system products. Almost without exception during the season, Schuerholz has annually acquired at least one player who has contributed greatly to the Braves' successful run. John Smoltz, in fact, is the only current Braves player who has been around for all 13 division titles.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later, and as an administrative assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. He was named Assistant Farm Director in 1970 and became Farm Director in 1975. He was promoted to Director of Player Procurement and Development in 1976 and Vice President-Player Personnel in 1979. The Royals named Schuerholz Executive Vice President and General Manager in October of 1981, when he was 41.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) University, where he played soccer and baseball. He was an all-conference choice in baseball and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973 and currently serves on the school's Board of Visitors. Towson's baseball facility is named John Schuerholz Park.

Schuerholz is active in YES! Atlanta, a program for disadvantaged youth and Camp Sunshine, a summer camp for children with cancer. He and his wife Karen have a daughter, Gina, and a son, Jonathan.

R.E. Turner

Board of Directors

Businessman, environmentalist and sportsman R.E. Turner is the founder of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS, Inc.) and serves on the board of directors of its parent company, Time Warner Inc., and the Atlanta Braves. He began his career as an account executive with Turner Advertising Company and entered the television business in 1970, when he acquired Atlanta independent UHF station Channel 17. In 1976, Turner purchased Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves and launched TBS Superstation. The following year, TBS, Inc. acquired the National Basketball Association's Atlanta Hawks and, in 1980, launched CNN, the original 24-hour news network.

During the next two decades, the company built a portfolio of cable television news and entertainment brands and businesses, including CNN Headline News, CNN International, TNT, Cartoon Network and Turner Classic Movies. In the mid-'90s, Castle Rock Entertainment and New Line Cinema were acquired by Turner Broadcasting. The company merged with Time Warner Inc. in October 1996. A subsequent merger, in January 2001, created AOL Time Warner. In October 2003, the company name reverted to Time Warner Inc.

Turner is chairman of the Turner Foundation, Inc., founded in 1990 to support environmental research and practices. The Turner Endangered Species Fund, a core grantee of the Turner Foundation, works to conserve biodiversity by restoring endangered or imperiled species. In September 1997, Turner announced his historic pledge of up to $1 billion to the United Nations Foundation (UNF) to support its goals and objectives. In 2001, Turner launched the Nuclear Threat Initiative (NTI), a foundation he co-chairs with former Sen. Sam Nunn, focused on closing the gap between the threat from nuclear, chemical and biological weapons and the global response.

Through his Turner Enterprises, Turner maintains the largest commercial bison herd in North America on ranches in Colorado, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma and South Dakota. In 2002, Turner produced the feature film "Gods and Generals" and opened Ted's Montana Grill in Columbus, Ohio, the first in a chain of restaurants he owns with George W. McKerrow Jr., founder of the Longhorn Steakhouse chain. Their business plan calls for more than 40 restaurants to open during the next few years.

Ruby M. Lucas

Board of Directors

Ruby Mims Lucas is a member of the board of directors of the Atlanta Braves and serves in a consulting role on community and internal development matters relating to the franchise. From 1996 until her retirement in 2001, Lucas was vice president of community relations for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS, Inc.). As such, she served as the company's primary community liaison, overseeing the development and implementation of community relations and employee volunteer initiatives. From 1991 to 1996, Lucas was the company's executive-on-loan for The Atlanta Project, a resident-directed community initiative of former President Jimmy Carter and The Carter Center. In this position, Lucas directed Turner

Broadcasting's participation as a corporate partner to the Douglass Cluster, a southwest Atlanta community. Prior to joining TBS, Inc., Lucas served as a public school teacher in Florida and Atlanta public school systems for more than 25 years.

From 1981 through 1995, Lucas was a member of the board of directors for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. From 1990 to 1991, Lucas served as human resources administrator for management training. She is a former member of the Atlanta School Board, appointed by Gov. Zell Miller to serve an interim term.

Lucas is president of the board of directors of the Bill Lucas Foundation, which honors her late husband, William D. Lucas, the general manager of the Atlanta Braves from 1976 until his death in 1979. The Foundation provides college scholarships to high school students who excel in academics and varsity baseball, as well as provides funds for metro Atlanta community service projects.

Mike Plant

Executive Vice President/Business Operations

Mike Plant was named the Braves' Executive Vice President of Business Operations in November 2003. His responsibilities include overseeing stadium operations, security, finance, personnel, special events and the operations of the minor league clubs.

Plant joined the Braves after having served as an executive vice president of Turner Sports since February of 2002. In that position he was in charge of the day-to-day operations of the division, a $500-million acquisition, promotion and production company that broadcast approximately 1,200 hours of sports programming on various Turner networks.

Before becoming executive vice president of Turner Sports, Plant was president of Goodwill Games and vice president of events for Turner Sports. He was responsible for the overall direction and management of the Goodwill Games, as well as all sports properties acquired by Turner Sports.

Prior to joining Turner Sports, Plant was president of Medalist Sports, a full-service sports marketing company he founded in 1988. Medalist Sports created and operated premier cycling events, such as the Tour DuPont, Tour of China and the 1996 Olympic Trials. In addition, Plant was the associate executive director of the U.S. Cycling Federation in Colorado Springs, Colo., from 1986-88 and the executive director of the Canoe and Kayak Team from 1985-86.

Plant was a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Speed Skating team in Lake Placid, N.Y., and a six-time member of the U.S. World Championship speed skating teams. Since 1980, he has been appointed to numerous committees for the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC), the U.S. International Speed Skating Association and USA Cycling. In January 1989, after having served two four-year terms as the U.S. speed skating athlete representative on the USOC's Athlete's Advisory Council, he was elected to a four-year term as chairman. Plant served on the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games (ACOG) Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees for the Salt Lake City Olympic Bid Committee for the 2002 Winter Games.

Plant served an eight-year term on the USOC's Board of Directors and executive committee (1984-92) and as chairman of the Athlete Performance Group (1992-96). Some of the other USOC committees he has worked on include the Olympic Broadcast Properties Board, the Finance Committee, Athlete Insurance Committee, Junior Olympic Committee, Games Preparation Committee, the President's Task Force on Central Funding, the Nominating Committee for USOC Officers and the Executive Director Search Committee. He currently serves on the USOC's Resource Allocation Committee.

Plant was the president of USA Cycling, the National Governing Body for Olympic cycling from 1995 - 2002.

Internationally, Plant serves on the International Cycling Federation's (UCI) Executive Committee (1997-2005) and is the Chairman of the Television and Marketing Commission.

He and his wife Mary have two daughters, Erika and Maddie, and a son, Drew.

Frank Wren

Vice President/Assistant General Manager

Frank Wren is in his sixth season as Vice President/Assistant General Manager. Named to the position on October 13, 1999, Wren assists Executive Vice President/General Manager John Schuerholz in all aspects of the club's baseball operations at the major league level.

Wren, 47, was the Baltimore Orioles' General Manager in 1999 after serving as the Florida Marlins' Vice President/Assistant General Manager from 1991 through 1998. He began his front office career as the General Manager of the Jamestown Expos of the New York-Penn League in 1985. He then became Montreal's Assistant Scouting Director and, in 1989, was appointed the team's Director of Latin American Scouting and Operations. Under his direction, the Expos built a new Latin baseball academy in the Dominican Republic. This academy was responsible for much of the talent that led to the Expos' success in the 1990s. The Expos' farm system was twice honored as Baseball America's "Organization of the Year" during Wren's tenure.

Wren began his professional baseball career as a center fielder in Montreal's minor league system in 1977 and reached the Double-A level before retiring in 1982. He coached in the Expos' system from 1981 to 1984.

Wren serves on the board of the Black Rock Foundation, a benevolent organization in Fayette County, Georgia, and on the board of Landmark Christian Schools. He, his wife Terri and their three sons, twins Kyle and Colby (14) and Jordan (10), live in Peachtree City.

Derek Schiller

Senior Vice President/Sales and Marketing

As senior vice president of sales and marketing, Derek Schiller is responsible for the overall business operations of the Braves, which includes management for all baseball-related revenues such as ticket sales, corporate sales, broadcasting, licensing and merchandising, community relations and the overall marketing strategy for the franchise.

He joined the Braves in November 2003, and, under his leadership, the team has redefined its sports marketing and promotional campaigns. With an increased emphasis on improving the overall fan experience, Schiller also has made Braves' season-ticket holders a business priority.

Schiller came to the Braves after having served as vice president of sales and marketing for the Atlanta Thrashers hockey team since 1998. In that position, he engineered highly-successful marketing and advertising campaigns, which resulted in the Thrashers setting an NHL expansion attendance record of 705,389 fans for the 1999-2000 season. In addition, he was a driving force behind the team's community efforts and was responsible for the establishment of the Atlanta Thrashers Foundation, a nonprofit, grant-making public charity that assists charitable, educational and public service organizations.

He also was instrumental in negotiating the team's first television contracts with Turner South and UPN69 and he oversaw the Thrashers Radio Network, which grew to include nearly 24 affiliates throughout Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina.

Before joining the Thrashers, Schiller served as vice president of business development for the New York Yankees from 1996-97. While there, he was responsible for all revenue-producing and related functions, including sponsorship sales, marketing, ticket and suite sales, publications, concessions and merchandising, fan services and licensing.

Prior to joining the Yankees, Schiller was the executive director of Atlanta's International Sports Plaza (ISP). He developed the first-ever private press center serving non-accredited press organizations during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and managed the hospitality venue during the Games in partnership with several Olympic sponsors.

Schiller earned a bachelor's degree in engineering from Vanderbilt University in 1992. He and his wife Kristin and their two children reside in Atlanta.

Greg Hughes

Senior Vice President PR/Communications

Greg Hughes is senior vice president of public relations and communications for the Braves, which includes oversight of the team's publicity and media relations, as well as publications. He also serves as senior vice president of sports public relations for Turner Entertainment Group. In this capacity, he oversees publicity for Turner Sports and its executives, including Turner Sports President David Levy and announcers. Hughes works closely with Mark Lazarus, president of Turner Entertainment Group, on issues bridging the TEG networks and sports businesses. Hughes is based in Atlanta and reports to Shirley Powell, senior vice president of corporate communications for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.

In his position at Turner Sports, Hughes oversees public relations efforts for the programming lineup for the company's NBA, NASCAR, Major League Baseball, professional golf and college football programs. In addition, he oversees publicity for Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves and Turner Sports Interactive, which includes NASCAR.com and PGA.com. Among the Turner Sports announcers Hughes works with are NBA legends Charles Barkley and Magic Johnson, Emmy-winning host Ernie Johnson, Marv Albert and baseball announcers Skip Caray, Don Sutton, Pete Van Wieren, Joe Simpson and Chip Caray.

Hughes has been responsible for the publicity of TNT's wrap-around programming for 10 Super Bowls, three Winter Olympics, four Summer Goodwill Games, the 2001 Winter Goodwill Games, three Wimbledon Championships and the British Open Championship. He has also handled publicity for Turner's coverage of 12 PGA Championships, 12 PGA Grand Slams and WUSA soccer, as well as for CNN Sports Illustrated (1996-2002) and World Championship Wrestling.

Hughes joined Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS) in August 1987 as a CNN tour guide and served as tour supervisor from January 1988 - October 1988. Hughes was promoted to TBS corporate communications coordinator in October 1988, where he scheduled executive media interviews and handled special projects and internal communications.

In July 1990, he moved to Turner Sports Public Relations, where he coordinated TBS Superstation's media relations for the 1990 Goodwill Games and the launch of the regional sports network SportSouth. Hughes was promoted to manager in July 1991, and to senior manager in March 1992. In March 1994, he was promoted to director and then named vice president in March 1996 and senior vice president in 1999.

Hughes graduated from the University of Wisconsin, where he received a bachelor of arts degree in journalism. In April 1997, Hughes received the Ralph O. Nafziger Achievement Award, honoring an alumnus for outstanding professional achievement within 10 years of graduation.

Hughes is also active in the Atlanta community where he has served as a board member on the Bobby Dodd Committee at Georgia Tech as well as being a regular guest lecturer at Emory University School of Business.

He lives in Atlanta with his two children, Sarah (13) and Daniel (10).

Chip Moore

Vice President/Controller

Chip Moore is in his ninth season as a Braves' Vice President and Controller and his 28th season with the organization overall.

Moore has moved up through the organization during his tenure. He began as an usher at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium before working nine seasons as a member of the Braves grounds crew. In 1985, he joined the Braves Accounting Department and rose to Assistant Controller in 1988 and eventually to the role of Controller in 1992. In his present capacity as Vice President and Controller for the Braves, Moore manages the accounting and finance functions.

The 43-year old Moore graduated from Oglethorpe University in 1985 with a degree in Business Administration majoring in Accounting. Moore serves on the Board of Directors and as Treasurer for the Atlanta Braves Foundation. He is also on the Board of Directors of the South Atlantic League of Professional Baseball.

Moore and his wife Anne reside in Powder Springs. They have one daughter, Jordan, and one son, Will.

John Cooper

Vice President/Team Counsel

John Cooper, vice president and team counsel, has represented the organization as legal counsel since 1997. John also currently serves as Associate General Counsel for Turner Sports, handling Turner's sports rights licensing (e.g., NBA, NASCAR, NASCAR.Com, British Open) and talent negotiations (e.g. Doug Collins, Charles Barkley), as well as Turner Entertainment Group, representing Turner's non-animation entertainment networks such as TNT, TBS, Turner Classic Movies and Turner South.

Cooper joined Turner in 1997 as legal counsel to Turner Sports, Goodwill Games, World Championship Wrestling, the Braves and the Atlanta Hawks. In February 2000, he was promoted to Team Counsel of all three Turner-owned sports teams - the Braves, Hawks and Thrashers and their venues, Turner Field and Philips Arena, managing all business and player operations legal work, and Assistant General Counsel to Turner Sports and Turner Sports Interactive. Prior to joining Turner, Cooper practiced corporate law at Troutman Sanders in Atlanta.

Cooper received his undergraduate degree in industrial management from Purdue University in 1989 and his law degree from Indiana University-Bloomington in 1992. He and his wife Jennifer have three daughters, Emily, Mimi and Sarah Jane.

2005 BRAVES MANAGER & STAFF

BOBBY COX

HEIGHT: 6-0

WEIGHT: 185

BORN: 5/21/41 in Tulsa, OK

RESIDES: Marietta, GA

SEASONS AS BRAVES MANAGER: 20 (1978-81; 1990-present)

BBWAA MANAGER OF YEAR: 1985, 1991, 2004

SPORTING NEWS MANAGER OF YEAR: 1985, 1991, 1993, 1999, 2002, 2003, 2004

MANAGER

The Braves' all-time winningest manager, Bobby Cox had perhaps his best managerial season in 2004. In addition to being voted the National League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, Cox was named Manager of the Year by the Sporting News, Baseball America and Sports Weekly. It marked the sixth time he's received the Sporting News honor with the Braves and seventh time overall. No other manager has won the award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936.

Cox led the injury-riddled Braves to a 96-66 record and their 13th consecutive division title to extend their own professional sports record. Despite the off-season departures of such players as Gary Sheffield, Javy Lopez, Vinny Castilla and Greg Maddux, and prolonged injuries to such stars as Horacio Ramirez and Marcus Giles, Cox proved the prognosticators wrong, as the Braves won the NL East by 10 games. On September 29, in the season's final home game, Cox earned his 2000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big league history to reach that lofty milestone.

The Braves have won more games (1,341) in the past 14 years than any other team in baseball. The 13 division crowns have led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). Cox's .567 winning percentage is better than all but two of the eight managers ahead of him (McCarthy, .615; John McGraw, .586). The Braves' 2004 first-place finish was the 14th in a row for Cox in seasons in which he has managed from the outset, including his final year in Toronto in 1985. His 2,002 wins include a franchise-best 1,647 with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays.

The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers in 2003, named Cox the National League manager of the year for the second straight season as he moved past Casey Stengel into ninth place on the all-time managerial win list. He joined the Yankees' Joe McCarthy as the only managers in major league history to guide their teams to 100 or more wins in a season six times. The Braves, with their 101-61 record, utilized a record-setting offense and a number of quality pitching performances, the Braves finished 10.0 games ahead of the Florida Marlins in the NL East. With the Braves' 101st win on the last day of the 2003 season, a 5-2 victory at Philadelphia, Cox reached 1,906 career victories, one more than Stengel.

Cox's accomplishments in 2002, when the Braves, with a mostly unheralded bullpen and injuries to key personnel, won their 12th consecutive division title, earned him the Sporting News award for the fifth time. He also received that distinction in 1985 with Toronto and in 1991, 1993 and 1999 with the Braves.

All-Time Managerial Win Leaders

Bobby Cox ranks ninth all-time in victories:

Manager	Yrs.	Games	Wins
1. Connie Mack*	53	7,755	3,731
2. John McGraw*	33	4,769	2,763
3. Sparky Anderson*	26	4,030	2,194
4. Bucky Harris*	29	4,408	2,157
5. Joe McCarthy*	24	3,487	2,125
6. Tony LaRussa	27	3,963	2,114
7. Walter Alston*	23	3,658	2,040
8. Leo Durocher*	24	3,739	2,008
9. BOBBY COX	23	3,533	2,002

Most Wins Over .500

Bobby Cox ranks third all-time in wins over .500 winning percentage:

Manager	Yrs.	Record	>.500
1. John McGraw*	33	2763-1948	815
2. Joe McCarthy*	24	2125-1333	792
3. BOBBY COX	23	2002-1531	471
4. Walter Alston*	23	2040-1613	427
5. Frank Selee*	16	1284-862	422

*Hall of Famer

Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, four games to two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise won a World Series in three different cities.

In 1993, the Braves won a then franchise-record 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight divisional titles. The Braves' 400 Club honored Cox with its Mr. Baseball Award.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst-to-first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several postseason honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978-81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. Cox began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in that season, lifting a habitual seventh-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by going 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers of America, the Associated Press, as well as the Sporting News.

Cox returned to the Braves as General Manager in October of 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for the team's recent success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz General Manager in October of that year.

Cox spent seven years in the Dodgers' farm system before being acquired by Atlanta late in 1966. After playing in 1967 for AAA Richmond, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team that season, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire as a player at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class-A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. His teams never finished lower than fourth in his six seasons in the Yankees' system. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. After serving as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977, Cox moved south to manage the Braves.

Cox was born May 21, 1941, in Tulsa, OK. He graduated from Selma (CA) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley (CA) Junior College. Cox, his wife Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta. He has five other children: Debbie, Bobby Jr., Connie, Shelly and Randy.

BENCH COACH

Now in his 47th season in professional baseball, Pat Corrales is working his seventh season as the Braves' bench coach in 2005. Corrales spent the previous nine years as the Braves' first base coach, after joining the team as an advance and special assignments scout in September of 1989. He was named to Atlanta's coaching staff on June 25, 1990, two days after Bobby Cox took over as manager.

In his nine years as a major league manager, Corrales compiled an overall record of 572-634 (.474) with Texas, Philadelphia and Cleveland. His first job as a big league pilot came with the Rangers in 1978, when he replaced Billy Hunter with one game remaining in the season. Corrales went on to guide the Rangers to third and fourth place finishes in 1979 and 1980, respectively.

He was named manager of the Phillies in 1982, leading them to a second-place finish; he was replaced in 1983 just after the All-Star break, despite leading the NL East with a 43-42 mark. Less than two weeks later, Corrales found himself back in the dugout as the skipper of the Indians, becoming only the fourth manager in major league history to manage in both the American and National leagues in the same season.

He remained with the Tribe until midway through the 1987 campaign. In 1986, he led the Indians to an 84-78 record (their most wins since 1968) and finished 11-1/2 games out of first place (their closest finish since 1959). That club became only the 10th team in major league history to lose 100 games one year and finish .500 or better the next, and he was recognized for his work by placing fourth in the AL Manager of the Year balloting by the BBWAA.

Corrales, who has been selected as an All-Star coach seven times in his career, managed at Alexandria of the Texas League in 1975, before joining the Rangers for three seasons as a coach under Frank Lucchesi. He played in the majors for eight seasons as a catcher for the Phillies, Cards, Reds and Padres.

Corrales participated in clinics conducted by Major League Baseball International and NIKE in November of 1994 in Mexico.

Pat, his wife, Donna, and a son, Patrick, live in Big Canoe. Pat has four other children: Rene, Michele, Patricia and Jason.

BULLPEN COACH

53

Bobby Dews, a member of the Braves organization as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975, joined Atlanta's staff for the third time when he was named third base coach in December of 1996. This season is his seventh straight as the Braves' bullpen coach.

Dews worked in Atlanta under Bobby Cox as a bullpen coach in 1979 and as third base coach in 1980-81 and as first base coach under manager Eddie Haas and as third base coach for Bobby Wine in 1985.

Prior to rejoining the major league staff in December of 1996, Dews had served as the Braves' minor league field coordinator since 1991, and, as such, was responsible for supervising instruction throughout the farm system. Chipper Jones is a current Brave who spent some of those years as Braves' minor leaguer.

Dews succeeded Hank Aaron as Atlanta's Director of Player Development in December of 1989, after having been the Assistant Director of Player Development for two years. Dews was a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987.

Appointed manager of Class-A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League in 1975, Dews spent eight of the next 11 years managing in the Braves' system, guiding five of his clubs to their respective playoffs. The AA Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League championship in 1978, earned Dews Manager of the Year honors. An infielder in the Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970, he actually began his managerial career in 1969 at Lewiston.

Dews, a native of Clinton, Iowa, graduated from Edison (GA) High School and attended Georgia Tech, where he was a standout basketball and baseball player. He earned a degree in English from West Georgia College in 1968. An accomplished writer, Dews had a novel, Largo, published in 1986 and his book Legends, Demons and Dreams was published in 2004. Bobby and his wife, Glenda, live in Edison, GA. They have one daughter, Dana.

FREDI GONZALEZ

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 200
 BORN: 1/28/64 in Havana, Cuba
 RESIDES: Marietta, GA
 SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 3

THIRD BASE COACH

45

Fredi Gonzalez is in his third season as the Braves' third base coach after spending 2002 as manager of their Triple-A Richmond affiliate.

Gonzalez, 41, was the Florida Marlins' third base coach from 1999 through 2001. Before joining the Marlins' major league club, he managed in the minor leagues for nine years, earning league manager of the year honors from Baseball America three times: in 1993 when High Desert finished 82-52 in the regular season and won the Class-A California League championship; in 1994, when Brevard County went 78-61 in the Class-A Florida State League; and in 1997, when he guided Portland (ME) to a 79-63 record and first place in the AA Eastern League.

Gonzalez began his managerial career in 1990, taking over the unaffiliated Miami Miracle of the Florida State League with 20 games to play. He continued with the Miracle in 1991 before becoming the first minor league manager in Marlins franchise history in 1992, leading Erie to the New York-Penn League championship series. After spending 1993 with High Desert, he managed Brevard County from 1994 through 1996, and then moved up to Portland in 1997 and Charlotte of the AAA International League in 1998.

Selected by the New York Yankees in the 16th round of the 1982 June draft, Gonzalez spent six seasons as a catcher in their farm system.

Gonzalez, his wife Pamela, daughter Gabrielle and son Alex Christopher reside in Marietta, GA.

GLENN HUBBARD

HEIGHT: 5-7 WEIGHT: 170
BORN: 9/25/57 at Hahn AFB, Germany
RESIDES: Stone Mountain, GA
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 7

FIRST BASE COACH

A former Braves' player (1978-87), Glenn Hubbard is in his seventh season as the club's first base coach in 2004. Prior to joining the major league staff in 1999, Hubbard spent the previous nine years coaching with the Braves' minor league affiliates: Bradenton (1990), Macon (1991-92, 1994 and 1998) and Richmond (1993, 1995-97).

Hubbard wore a Braves uniform for 10 of his 12 major league seasons. In 1981 he set a then Atlanta Braves' record for second basemen with a .991 fielding percentage. His most successful year was in 1983, when he hit .263 and set career highs with 12 home runs and 70 RBI and was also named to the NL All-Star team. Hubbard led all NL second basemen in double plays in 1982, 1985 and 1987. He ended his career playing with the 1988 pennant-winning and the 1989 World Champion Oakland A's.

Hubbard, the Braves 20th round selection in the 1975 June draft, was signed by Bill Wight. Hubbard began his career with Atlanta in 1978 when he was promoted after being named Rookie of the Year in Richmond. In only his second major league game, he participated in a triple play against Philadelphia on July 15, 1978. He hit his first major league home run on September 23, 1978, off Cincinnati's Manny Sarmiento. On April 14, 1985, he tied a major league record for assists in a game by a second baseman when he had 12 vs. the Padres. Hubbard holds the record with seven other second basemen.

In 1998 with Macon, Glenn was named as a coach on the South Atlantic League's postseason All-Star team.

Glenn was born in Hahn AFB in Germany and graduated from Lomand High School in Ogden, Utah. A four-sport athlete, participating in basketball, wrestling, football and baseball, he was inducted into the Utah Athletic Hall of Fame in November 2001.

One of his prize pupils has been Marcus Giles, who hit .316 in an All-Star season in 2003, when he led the major leagues with a .342 road batting average, set a modern-day franchise record with 49 doubles. Giles also improved immeasurably as a fielder, leading the National League in assists by a second baseman with 471.

Glenn and his wife, Lynn, reside in Stone Mountain, GA. They have three sons: Jeremy, Matthew and Daniel.

LEO MAZZONE

HEIGHT: 5-10 WEIGHT: 185
BORN: 10/16/48 in Keyser, WV
RESIDES: Atlanta, GA
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 16

PITCHING COACH

54

Leo Mazzone has been developing pitchers at various levels of the Braves' organization since 1979. The Braves' pitching staff finished first or second in ERA in the major leagues from 1992 through 2002. That didn't happen in 2003, but in 2004 the staff again regained its league-leading status with a 3.74 mark.

Mazzone was instrumental in the outstanding 2004 campaigns turned in by newcomers Jaret Wright and John Thomson, who both reached career highs in wins.

In 2003, Greg Maddux snapped a tie with Cy Young by winning at least 15 games for a record-breaking 16th consecutive season. Russ Ortiz, a Cy Young Award candidate, led the National League with a career-best 21 wins. He was the ninth 20-game winner under Leo's care. Mike Hampton rebounded from two sub-par seasons with the Rockies to go 14-8, including 11-3 in his last 17 starts. Rookie left-hander Horacio Ramirez went 12-4. And, John Smoltz was on pace to shatter records for a closer until sidelined for about a month with elbow tendinitis. He still finished with 45 saves.

In 2002, the Braves led the majors with a 3.13 ERA, the lowest for the team since a 3.05 in 1974. The bullpen also was tops in the majors with a 2.60 ERA. Smoltz set a National League record with 55 saves. Chris Hammond, out of baseball in 2000 and 2001, became only the third pitcher since 1900 to post a sub 1.00 ERA at 0.95 (minimum 70.0 IP). The Braves led the NL and were second in the majors with a 3.49 ERA in 2001. Under Mazzone's tutelage John Burkett, released by Tampa Bay a year earlier -- ranked third in the NL with a 3.04 ERA and made the All-Star team. In 2000, Tom Glavine won 20 games for the fifth time in his career and Maddux won 19 for the fifth time.

In 1999, fourth starter Kevin Millwood made a strong run for NL Cy Young honors, finishing third with 18 wins and a 2.68 ERA. The 1998 Braves starting rotation of Maddux, Glavine, Smoltz, Denny Neagle and Millwood became only the third Major League staff with five 16-game winners, with Glavine claiming his second Cy Young award. Rookie Kerry Ligtenberg took over in the bullpen to lead the team with 30 saves and 75 appearances. In 1997, Neagle went 20-5 and placed third in the NL Cy Young voting. Smoltz won the 1996 National League Cy Young award. In 1995, Maddux won an unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young award. Each of the four starters accumulated at least 35 starts and 220 innings in 1993. In 1992, the Braves set a franchise record with 24 shutouts and Glavine won the N.L. Cy Young in 1991.

Mazzone was named the Braves' pitching coach for the second time on June 22, 1990, the day Bobby Cox replaced Russ Nixon as manager. Mazzone had reached the Major League level for the first time in 1985, when, after an 18-year career as a minor league player, coach and manager, he joined Atlanta as a co-pitching coach.

After retiring as a pitcher at the end of the 1975 season, Mazzone managed Class-A Corpus Christi in 1976 and 1977. He managed Class-A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1978 and then took a position as a minor league pitching instructor in the Braves' organization from 1979-82. He worked as the pitching coach in Durham from 1983 to July 21, 1984, before winding up that season as Greenville's manager. He was a coach at Sumter and Greenville in 1986 and 1987, respectively, and served as Richmond's pitching coach from 1988 to June of 1990.

Mazzone pitched in the minors from 1967-75, with his best season coming with Class-A Decatur in the Midwest League in 1969, when he went 15-10 with a 2.52 ERA. At Amarillo (AA) of the Texas League in 1972, Mazzone compiled a 2.62 ERA, but missed qualifying for the league ERA title by four innings pitched.

Mazzone co-authored a book with writer Jim Rosenthal entitled Pitch Like A Pro and has an instructional video out, Four Aces. He has three sons, Anthony, Christopher and Nicholas, and lives in Atlanta.

TERRY PENDLETON

HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 200
BORN: 7/16/60 in Los Angeles, CA
RESIDES: Duluth, GA
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 4

Terry Pendleton is in his fourth season as the Braves' hitting coach. Named the club's hitting coach in November of 2001, this is Terry's first major league coaching position. He was selected the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1991 and an All-Star third baseman in 1992 while playing for the Braves.

Signed as a free agent in December of 1990 by Executive Vice President and General Manager John Schuerholz, Pendleton played for the Braves from 1991 through 1994 and in part of 1996. He was a key factor in the Braves' turn-around from being the worst team in the major leagues in 1990 to a pennant-winning club the next year, as he batted an NL-best .319 with 22 home runs and 86 RBI. He tied for the league lead with 303 total bases, helping him earn Comeback Player of the Year honors, as well as the MVP award.

He was voted an All-Star starter in 1992, going .296-13-51 before the break and finishing the year with a .311 BA, 21 homers and a career-high 105 RBI to lead the Braves to another pennant. He led the NL with a .387 BA with runners in scoring position and had a career-best 199 hits, a franchise record for third basemen.

Pendleton, a switch-hitter, batted .287 with 71 home runs and 322 RBI in 593 games overall for Atlanta and .270 with 140 homers and 946 RBI in 1,893 games over a 15-year career with the St. Louis Cardinals, Braves, Florida Marlins, Cincinnati Reds and Kansas City Royals. He won Rawlings Gold Gloves in 1987 and 1989 while with St. Louis and in 1992 with Atlanta.

Originally selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1982 June draft, Pendleton, after his first four seasons with the Braves, signed with the Marlins as a free agent in April of 1995. Florida traded him back to Atlanta in exchange for outfielder Roosevelt Brown in August of 1996. Pendleton was signed as a free agent by the Reds in January of 1997 and the Royals in January of 1998. He retired as a player the next December.

In his second season as Braves' hitting coach in 2003, the team established franchise bests in home runs (225), hits (1,608), doubles (321) and slugging percentage (.475) and had the highest team batting average in Atlanta history. Several individual players enjoyed career seasons, as well. Much of the credit for those accomplishments went to Terry Pendleton.

Terry and his wife, Catherine, and their three children, Stephanie, Terry and Trinity live in Duluth, GA.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH 59

Frank Fultz has served as the Braves' strength and conditioning coach since 1992, the second year of the team's remarkable run of division titles. He pulled double duty in 1998, when he also served as minor league fitness coordinator.

Fultz's professional career began in 1986 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Houston Astros, while at the same time serving as associate head baseball coach at the University of Houston. He spent 1988 through 1991 as a strength and conditioning coach in the Pittsburgh Pirates' minor league system.

Prior to moving to Houston, Fultz was the head baseball coach at Texas Wesleyan College, which won the NAIA District II championship from 1979 through 1985 and the regional title in 1980-81. He began his amateur career as the pitching coach at Triton College in River Grove, Illinois, in 1976-77, before serving in the same capacity at George Mason University in 1978.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in educational psychology from Texas Wesleyan in 1973, Fultz earned his master's in physical education/exercise physiology from Utah State in 1974. He received a doctorate in health science from the University of Utah in 1976.

Fultz resides in Alpharetta, GA, with his two children, daughter Natalie and son Warren.

Barnes' 2004 Season Recap

- Led Las Vegas (AAA) with a .348 batting average (87-for-250).
- Spent the season with Dodgers' Triple-A Las Vegas affiliate. Was on D.L. from 4/20 to 6/30 due to a torn tendon in his left wrist.
- Spent a month with the Gulf Coast Dodgers rehabbing his wrist injury.
- Hit .380 with four home runs, 13 RBI and eight doubles in August.
- Went 11-for-20 (.550) in five games during September.

BravoFact

The "Johnny Estrada No Drugs Foundation" launched its website www.nodrugsbseball.com in the spring of 2005. The aim of the foundation is to promote programs and events designed to make youth aware of the dangers of using drugs. Estrada says his strong "No Drugs" stance was cultivated as a youth, when his supportive parents and the game of baseball kept him off the streets and away from drugs. Estrada has the words "No Drugs" stitched in red letters over the dark blue border of his chest protector to help spread his anti-drugs message.

Estrada's 2004 Season Recap

- In his first full big-league season, posted career highs in nearly every offensive category.
- Earned his first career Silver Slugger Award in a vote of National League managers and coaches.
- Played in 134 games (133 at catcher) and batted .314 with nine home runs and 76 RBI.
- Became just the second switch-hitting catcher since 1923 (Ted Simmons) to hit better than .300 (min. 100 games caught).
- Johnny's .314 mark is the fourth-best batting average ever by a switch-hitting catcher.
- His .351 road batting average ranked third in the NL.
- Ranked fifth in the NL with a .338 (47-for-139) batting average with runners in scoring position.
- Batted .329 vs. RHP - sixth in the NL.
- Had 37 multi-hit games, including 15 games with three or more hits.
- Had a team-high 45 two-out RBI.
- Was the Braves' lone All-Star representative. Made his first career AS appearance at Houston (0-for-2).
- Had career bests with five hits (in five ABs) and five RBI on 5/15 at MIL. Also had a Braves season-high nine total bases in the game.
- Went 4-for-4 with two RBI 6/23 at FLA.
- Went 4-for-4 with a HR on 8/19 at LA.
- Clubbed his career-high ninth homer with a three-run shot on 9/10 vs. MON.
- Was Named to the MLB All-Star squad that traveled to Japan in November. Johnny played in five of the eight games on the tour and went 1-for-16 (.063) with a homer.

- His 14 career homers lead all active pitchers.
- Was on the losing end of Randy Johnson's perfect game on 5/18. Mike went the distance for his 20th career CG, allowing just two runs on eight hits in the historic contest.
- Was 0-5 for the first time in his career until winning on 5/23 vs. LA in a 5-1 Braves victory. It was his first scoreless outing of the season and hit his first homer with a solo shot off Wilson Alvarez in the fourth inning.
- Pitched 8.0 shutout innings at PHI on 7/10, allowing just five hits and two walks in the 4-0 win.
- Improved to 9-8 with his seventh straight win (5-4) at SD on 8/16.
- Had one of his best performances of the year with an eight-inning outing at PHI on 8/31, when he allowed one run (solo homer by M. Lieberthal) on just two hits in the 5-3 win.
- Suffered a torn meniscus cartilage in his left knee in his start on 9/11 vs. MON. Mike left the game with a 2-0 lead after throwing 4.1 scoreless innings. The Braves went on to win 8-1. Mike underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair the torn meniscus (performed by Dr. Marvin Royster) on 10/5.
- Made a strong comeback in his first outing since injuring his knee on 9/25 vs. FLA, going 7.0 shutout innings and allowing just three hits while walking none.
- Eclipsed 2,000 career innings pitched on 10/1 at CHI.
- Had his seven-game winning streak snapped on 8/21 at LA.
- Missed his start on 6/13 at CWS due to a bruised left biceps. Was also forced to skip his start vs. PHI on 9/6 due to a stiff neck.

2004 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Started Game 2 in Houston, going 6.1 solid innings, allowing two runs on four hits before leaving the game with tightness in his left forearm...The only damage came on solo HRs by Jeff Bagwell in the first inning and Raul Chavez in the third...Appeared in relief in Game 4, gutting out a scoreless seventh inning to help the Braves tie the series with a 6-5 win in Atlanta.

Hudson's Career Recap

- With a 92-39 lifetime mark, Tim ranks third all-time in career winning percentage (.702) among pitchers with at least 100 decisions.
- Left Oakland ranked as the career leader in winning percentage, fourth in strikeouts (899), fifth in wins, sixth in innings (1240.2) and games started (183), tied for eighth in shutouts (8) and ninth in ERA (3.30).
- Owns an amazing 75-2 record in his 97 career starts in which he has received run support of four or more.
- Won at least 10 games in each of his first six major league seasons, joining Catfish Hunter (7), Vida Blue (6) and Dave Stewart (6) as the only pitchers in Oakland history with at least six 10-win seasons.
- The A's went 123-60 (.672) in his 183 career starts.
- Is 46-15 with a 3.04 ERA (221 er in 655.0 ip) in 93 career starts at home and his .7541 home winning percentage is second best among active pitchers with 25 or more wins to Mark Mulder (43-14, .7544).
- Has gone seven or more innings in 111 of his 183 career starts (60.7%). Is 76-10 with a 1.90 ERA (180 er in 852.2 ip) in his career when pitching seven or more innings.
- Has 81 wins, 1104.1 innings pitched, 162 games started and a 3.31 ERA since the start of 2000 season, ranking fifth in the majors in innings over that span, tied for fifth in wins, seventh in ERA and tied for seventh in starts.
- Has 30 no decisions over the last three seasons and has left with the lead in 18 of those no decisions only to have the bullpen blown the save all 18 times. The A's went 20-10 in his no decisions over the last three seasons and he had a 2.84 ERA (65 er in 206.1 ip) in those starts.
- The A's went 63-32 (.663) in his starting assignments over the last three seasons.
- Has posted two winning streaks of nine games and two streaks of eight games. Has just one four-game losing streak in his career (May 2002).
- Boasts a 15-2 record with a 1.96 ERA (42 er/193.1 ip) over his last 26 starts during the day dating back to 6/30/02. Has not lost a day game in a non-dome since 5/9/02 against BOS.
- Owns a 10-2 record with a 2.50 ERA (41 er/147.1 ip) in 21 career interleague starts. His ERA is third best all-time in interleague play (minimum 100.0 ip).
- Is 1-0 with a 2.00 ERA (4 er in 18.0 ip) in his three career opening day starts. Became just the fourth pitcher in Oakland history to make three or more opening day starts (Dave Stewart-6, Rick Langford-5 and Catfish Hunter-3).

Hudson's 2004 Season Recap

- Was 12-6 with a 3.53 ERA in just 27 starts as he spent over a month of the season on the disabled list with a strained left oblique muscle.
- Was named to his second American League All-Star team but did not pitch, as he was on the DL.
- His ERA was the second highest of his career (4.14 in 2000) but it was fifth lowest in the A.L. in 2004.
- His wins and starts were second fewest to his 11 wins in 21 starts during his rookie campaign of 1999.
- Had career lows in walks (44) and strikeouts (103) and allowed a career-high .267 opp. batting average.
- The A's were 15-12 in his starting assignments.
- Continued a recent trend of ending up with a no-decision after leaving with a lead. Tim had nine no-decisions in 2004 and left with the lead in six of those outings only to have the bullpen blow the save all six times. He left with the score tied in his other three no decisions.
- Had run support of 4.63 -- the lowest figure of his career and 10th lowest in the A.L. in 2004.
- In addition to ranking fifth in the A.L. in ERA, he also tied for the lead in shutouts (2), tied for fourth in winning percentage (.667) and tied for fifth in complete games (3).
- Tied with teammate Rich Harden for the second lowest opponents slugging percentage (.366) in the A.L., tied for the third fewest pitches per inning (14.6) and had the sixth fewest walks per nine innings (2.10).
- Allowed just eight home runs in 188.2 innings, an average of 0.38 per nine innings which was the lowest in the majors in '04 and the third lowest ever by an Oakland pitcher. His eight home runs were the fewest ever by an Oakland pitcher with a minimum of 162.0 innings pitched.
- Tied for sixth in the A.L. with a career-high 12 hit batters and has hit 47 batters in his career which broke the Oakland record of 45 set by Mike Norris.

- Was 7-3 with a 2.98 ERA (36 er in 108.2 ip) over his first 15 starts of the year when he was placed on the 15-day disabled list retroactive to 6/23 with a left oblique strain.
- Was reinstated from the D.L. on 8/7 and went 5-3 with a 4.28 ERA (38 er in 80.0 ip) in 12 starts following his return.
- Was 7-0 with a 1.99 ERA (17 er in 77.0 ip) in 10 starts when pitching on five days rest and 5-5 with a 4.54 ERA (51 er in 101.0 ip) in 15 starts when pitching on four days rest.
- Was 4-2 with a 2.72 ERA in 11 starts during the day and had the third best day ERA in the AL.
- Went 6-2 with a 3.19 ERA (32 er in 90.1 ip) in 13 starts at home and 6-4 with a 3.84 ERA (42 er in 98.1 ip) in 14 starts on the road. Ranked seventh in the A.L. in home ERA and 10th in road ERA.
- Posted an ERA under 3.00 in three different months, including 2.72 in April, 2.22 in June and 2.38 in August. However, was 2-2 with a 6.23 ERA in September – his highest one-month ERA since May 2002 when he had a 7.30 ERA. Allowed five home runs in September after allowing three home runs over his first 20 starts (142.2 ip).
- Was 1-0 with a 1.88 ERA (3 er in 14.1 ip) in two interleague starts.
- Had a 12-game winning streak during day games snapped on 5/2 at TB.
- Pitched seven or more innings in 20 of his 27 starts and tossed eight-plus innings 10 times in 2004.
- Allowed two runs or fewer 14 times and walked two batters or fewer 20 times.
- Made his third career opening day start on 4/5 against Texas.
- Tossed just 86 pitches in a complete game four-hitter in the A's 2-1 win on 4/10 against SEA. Followed that start by tossing 7.1 scoreless innings on 4/16 at ANA and had a career-high 21.1 inning scoreless streak from 4/10 to 4/21. His previous high was 20.0 innings, 7/17-27/03. Tossed at least seven innings in eight consecutive starts from 4/10 to 5/20, matching the longest such streak of his career (4/16-5/25/03).
- Induced SEA to ground into five double plays on 4/21, the most by an A's pitcher since the statistic became available in 1974. Also hit three batters in that game, tying the Oakland single game record. Hit three batters again on 6/11 against PIT.
- Had his only losing streak of the season when he lost his final start before going on the disabled list on 6/22 at ANA and his first start following his return on 8/7 at MIN. The two-game losing streak equaled the second longest of his career.
- Made one rehab start at Triple-A Sacramento on 7/31 against Oklahoma and had a no decision (3.0 IP, 2 H, 2 R, 2 BB, 3 SO, 2 WP).
- Had a season-best four-game winning streak from 8/17 to 9/3.
- Had a 13-start, 96.1-inning and 402-batter homerless streak snapped on 9/3 at TOR when Carlos Delgado homered to lead off the second inning. It was his first home run allowed since 5/8 vs. MIN (Jacque Jones).
- Had a seven-game home winning streak snapped 9/8 vs. BOS, his first home loss since 9/19/03 vs. SEA.

C. Jones' Career Recap

- His .304 career batting average ranks second all-time among switch hitters; Hall-of-Famer Frankie Frisch batted .316.
- Is one of only six active players to own a .300 career batting average with 300 homers and 300 doubles.
- Is fourth in Braves all-time history in hits (1,705). Passed Rabbit Maranville (1,696) on the franchise hit list on 9/13/04.
- Ranks third in the majors with 1,703 hits over the last 10 seasons (since 1995).
- Chipper is the only switch hitter in major league history to own a .300 career average (.304) and hit at least 300 homers (310).
- Owns an Atlanta-record six 30-HR seasons. His 310 HRs rank fourth in Atlanta history.
- Has an Atlanta-record 325 career doubles; stands 15 behind Eddie Mathews for second place on the Braves' franchise list.
- Only 14 times in major league history has a switch hitter posted a .300 batting average with 30 home runs, 100 runs scored and 100 RBI. Chipper has done it five times; Mickey Mantle, Eddie Murray and Lance Berkman are the only other switch hitters to have done it twice.

The Only One

Chipper Jones is the only switch hitter in major league history to club 300 home runs and hit over .300 in his career. Following is the list of switch hitters who have smashed 300 homers:

Player	HR	Avg.
1. Mickey Mantle	536	.298
2. Eddie Murray	504	.287
3. Chili Davis	350	.274
4. Reggie Smith	314	.287
5. Chipper Jones	310	.304
6. Ruben Sierra	302	.269

C. Jones' 2004 Season Recap

- Missed 25 games in an injury-shortened season and fell short of 100 RBI (96) for the first time since 1995. Chipper's streak of eight straight 100-RBI seasons ties him with Mel Ott (1929-36) and Willie Mays (1959-66) for second most in NL history. Sammy Sosa did it nine straight years (1995-2003).
- Had career lows in batting avg. (.248), runs (69) extra-base hits (51), doubles (20) and stolen bases (2).
- Struggled in the first half, batting just .214 with 12 homers and 34 RBI, but was strong after the All-Star break, posting a .278 average with 18 homers and 62 RBI. Ranked fourth in the NL in RBI after the break.
- Reached 25 HRs for the seventh straight season, tying Hank Aaron's club record for consecutive 25-homer seasons; hit 20 HRs for the 10th straight year.
- Homered 4/16 and 4/17 before leaving 4/18 game with a strained right hamstring after chasing Luis Castillo's triple to left-center.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list 4/26 (retroactive to 4/19) with a strained right hamstring. Missed 16 games (Braves went 6-10) and it was his third trip to the DL in his career.
- Had one-game rehab stint at Rome (A) and was activated from the DL on 5/8.
- His sixth-inning HR 6/9 at DET was the longest ever at Comerica Park (453 ft.) and snapped an 0-for-14 spell. Also clubbed a 448-foot homer 6/10 at DET.
- Started 6/15 game at third base for the first time since 10/21/01 vs. ARI in the NLCS.
- Tied for the team lead with 18 RBI in July.
- Went 2-for-4 with a season-high four RBI on 7/5 vs. MON (at PR).
- Had second three-hit game of the year on 7/15 and had his third on 7/18, including a triple, home run and a season-high tying four RBI.
- Tied Herman Long (996) for 7th in franchise history in runs scored on 7/19.
- Scored his 1,000th run in his career 7/31 vs. NY.
- Homered in five straight games, 8/13-17, matching the franchise record; was the first Brave to do so since Ozzie Virgil, 5/12-16/87.
- Had first multi-HR (one was a 450-ft shot) game of the season 8/14 off STL's Jason Marquis. It was his first since 7/7/03 at NYM.
- Picked up 1,000th career RBI on fourth-inning homer off STL's Danny Haren on 8/15.
- Hit 300th career HR 8/16, becoming the fifth switch hitter to reach the mark.
- Had second multi-homer game of '04 and 30th of his career on 8/25 vs. COL.
- Batted .337 (34-for-101) in August, with team highs in HRs (11) and RBI (29).
- He and his wife Sharon gave birth to their second son (Shea Logan) on 8/30.
- Hit 30th HR on 9/22 vs. CIN.

2004 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Went 4-for-20 with three walks in five games... Had no extra-base hits or RBI in the series.

1997: Began the season on the active roster but was hampered by injuries, managing just three extra-base hits among his first 22 hits...Was placed on the DL on 5/7 with a bulging disc in his lower back...Returned to the active roster on 6/13 and played in 11 games before returning to the DL for a second time on 6/27...Returned to the roster on 8/10, but appeared in just 10 games before going on the DL for the final time on 8/25...Doubled twice, stole third base and scored the game's only run in the opener of an 4/19 doubleheader vs. San Diego at Honolulu...Errorless in 84 chances in the outfield...Underwent surgery on his left wrist in September.

1996: Missed first two weeks with wrist injury...Matched his then career high with four hits on 4/23 at Montreal and 7/14 at Chicago...Meanwhile, got outstanding defensive season off and running with three assists in seven games 4/21-27...Hit first homer of season 4/30 at Chicago, triggering 11-game hitting streak, batting .420 (34-for-81) and slugging .691 with 27 RBI over 22 games from 6/11-7/5...Had six RBI in 9-2 win on 6/24 at Atlanta...Drove in six runs for second time in a month with a two-run homer in first and his second career grand slam in sixth inning on 7/13 at Chicago...Drove in 11 runs in last three games of that series (with seven consecutive hits with runners in scoring position), 18 in seven-game RBI streak, and 22 with RBI in 10 of 11 outings, adding an eighth consecutive hit with RISP before streak ended at Cincinnati...Batted .514 (19-for-37) with runners in scoring position over 27 games, 6/24-7/23...Hit .326 (30-for-92) in July with 33 RBI in 21 games...Recorded 16 consecutive steals, 6/21-8/26, before being caught 8/31 vs. Colorado...Compiled 10-game hit streak 8/29-9/8, batting .500 (20-for-40) and slugging .700...Equalled known modern record with 13 bases-loaded hits, set by Mike Devereaux in 1989...Hit .684 with 31 RBI in bases-loaded situations and led NL with .422 BA with runners in scoring position...Hit .343 (37-for-108) vs. left-handers...Named NL Player of the Week three times, twice in July and once in September...Finished third in NL with .994 fielding percentage (two errors in 320 total chances), the second best mark for right fielders...Hit grand slam, his third-career two-homer game and equalled a then career high for RBI with 6, 7/13 at Chicago.

1996 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (SD): Hit two-run HR in ninth inning 10/5 at SD to complete 7-5 win and three-game Division Series sweep...Had three hits and three RBI in finale...NLCS (All.): Completed St. Louis comeback in Game 4 10/13 vs ATL with eighth-inning homer for 4-3 victory.

1995: Battled Ray Lankford neck-and-neck for the St. Louis home run and RBI leadership while also keeping his batting average near .300 for much of the season...Finished second on the club in home runs and RBI and established career-highs for nearly every offensive category...Teamed with Lankford to give the Cardinals their first 20-homer tandem since 1980...Hit in 13 consecutive games (17-for-47, .362) from 8/9-22...Batted .313 with 14 home runs and a team-leading 53 RBI at Busch...Batted .321 with runners in scoring position and .365 with a runner on third...Ranked second among NL outfielders in fielding (.996)...Had two two-homer games, including the 9/16 contest vs. Los Angeles when he had nine total bases...Finished second on the club in both multi-hit (42) and multi-RBI (19) games.

1994: Season was ended by a rib injury in early July...One of the hottest hitters in spring training, batting .323 while leading the team with 19 RBI and tying for lead with four homers...Hitless in first 24 at-bats with runners in scoring position...Batted .344 with runners in scoring position in 1993 but slipped to .042 (2-for-48) in 1994...Was 2-4 with a homer on 4/14 vs. Los Angeles...Hit two-run pinch homer 6/28 at New York...Hit in nine consecutive games 6/16-28, increasing average from .227 to a season-high .261...Suffered season-ending injury 9/9 at Atlanta when he collided with Todd Zeile while chasing a pop foul and fractured four ribs...Made only one error in 111 chances (.991)...Appeared in one game at first.

1993: Began the year as the Cardinals' starting left fielder, but was optioned to Louisville (AAA) on 4/25 when his playing time was reduced following a slow start...In two months at Louisville, Jordan batted .378 with five home runs and 35 RBI in 38 games...Recalled on 6/25...Batted .337 (64-for-190) with 10 homers and 43 RBI in 54 games following his return...Hit a grand slam homer and had five RBI in the Cardinals' 14-5 win vs. Philadelphia on 7/1...Had two-homer games on two occasions, 7/19 at Atlanta and 8/10 at Pittsburgh...Injured left shoulder which limited his availability late in the year...Made just three starts after 9/1...Last appearance was on 9/5 after which he underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair cartilage damage and shoulder tightness...Batted .365 vs. left-handers, .344 with runners in scoring position.

1992: Slated to start the season at Louisville, but was recalled on 4/8 when Andres Galarraga went down with injury...Had two hits and four RBI in his major league debut on 4/8 vs. New York...Hit his first major league homer on 4/29 at San Francisco off Trevor Wilson...Had three doubles in 4/18 contest vs. Chicago...Hit in nine of 11 games between 5/1-15, raising his batting average from .197 to .248...In his first 109 at-bats, 18 of 40 hits went for extra bases...Made just one error in 106 outfield chances for .991 fielding percentage...Disabled 5/23-6/22 with hamstring injury...Agreed to exclusive three-year baseball contract in June, foregoing football career...Optioned to Louisville on 7/12...Hit .290 with four home runs and 16 RBI in 43 games with the Triple-A club...Sat out final month of the season after injuring shoulder when he crashed into outfield wall.

1991: Opened season strong at Louisville, hitting safely in 16 of first 19 games for a .301 average (22-for-73) from 4/24-5/22...Included during that span was a season best six-game hit streak (5/10-15)...Drove in three runs on 5/12 at Denver...Had a .321 spurt in late June (9-for-28)...Finished season with a .264 average in 61 games when he left for Atlanta Falcons training camp on 7/3.

1990: Played just 25 games between Arkansas (AA) and St. Petersburg (A)...Invited to Cardinals' major league spring training camp and began the season at Arkansas...Went on the DL with right wrist injury from 5/6-17...Sent down to St. Petersburg after returning to the active list on 5/17...Wrist injury continued to give him problems and was diagnosed as a broken navicular bone on 6/7...Injury caused him to miss the remainder of the season.

1989: Played in only 11 games during his second season of professional baseball...Was slowed by ankle injury that he suffered while playing football in the Senior Bowl...Showed much promise in those 11 games, however, hitting safely in 10...Homered, tripled and drove in five runs on 7/9 vs. Port Charlotte...On 7/13 vs. Sarasota, belted the first homer of the year by a St. Petersburg player at Al Lang Stadium in the club's 45th home game...Posted a .628 slugging average and was errorless in the outfield.

1988: Selected by St. Louis in the supplemental round of the 1988 free agent draft...Was additional compensation pick for the loss of free-agent Jack Clark...Spent first pro season at Hamilton (A)...Had impressive debut on 7/8 vs. Little Falls with three hits and two outstanding defensive plays in centerfield...Hit his first professional homer on 7/10 vs. Oneonta...Suffered a bone bruise on his right heel 7/27 and played in only one game following the injury, before returning to the University of Richmond for his final season of football.

PERSONAL/MISC: Married to Pam and has two daughters, Briana and Kenley, and two sons, Bryson and Kaleb Braxton...Resides in Alpharetta, GA...Attended University of Richmond where he played baseball and football and was a sociology major...Was named All-America and all-conference in football...Named all-conference in baseball...A graduate of Milford HS in Baltimore, MD...Inducted into the Milford Mill HS Sports Hall of Fame in 2002 when he appeared at the school to award two $16,000 college scholarships as part of his Brian Jordan Back to the Future Foundation...Played baseball, football and basketball in high school...As a defensive back in football, was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the 1989 NFL draft...Released during training camp and picked up by the Atlanta Falcons...Spent three seasons (1989-91) with the Falcons and was named an alternate on the 1992 Pro Bowl team.

Ramirez's 2004 Season Recap

- Made just nine starts in an injury-shortened sophomore season. He registered eight quality starts.
- Missed more than three months of the season due to left shoulder tendinitis.
- Was a tough-luck 2-4, as the Braves scored just seven runs in his four losses and only 29 runs total in his nine starts.
- Of his 24 runs allowed, only 16 were earned and seven came with two outs.
- Held opponents to a .226 batting average.
- His last start came 5/25 at MON, and he pitched just one more game after that (9/26 vs. FLA).
- At the time of his injury, ranked fifth in the National League with a 2.25 ERA. Ranked eighth in the league with a 2.43 mark at night.
- Pitched a solid game 4/15 at NY, but suffered his first loss in a 4-0 shutout. He pitched 7.0 innings allowed two runs on six hits.
- Did not earn a decision in the Braves' 9-5, extra-inning win on 4/21 at CIN. Horacio went 6.0 innings and allowed three runs on five hits.

- Allowed three runs (all with two outs) in the third inning en route to a 3-2 loss at SF on 4/26. Walked four batters (two intentional) and allowed six hits.
- Had his worst outing of the season at COL on 5/2, as the Braves concluded their 12-game roadtrip with a 13-4 loss, committing an Atlanta-record seven errors in the game. Horacio allowed eight runs in 3.1 IP, but none of the runs were earned.
- Snapped his career-high three-game losing streak with a 2-0 win at MIL on 5/14. Horacio pitched 8.0 innings of shutout ball, allowing five hits and four walks.
- Threw his second career complete game and first of the season 5/20 vs. ARI, allowing just three hits. His lone run allowed came on a Robby Hammock solo HR to lead off the eighth inning.

BravoFact

Horacio spent time visiting with patients from Children's Healthcare of Atlanta during a 2004 pre-game picnic at Turner Field. More than 100 patients had the opportunity to meet Horacio and take pictures with him.

Executive Biographies

Dayton Moore

Director of Player Personnel

Dayton Moore has been a member of the Braves organization since 1994. In the summer of 2002, he was named Director of Player Personnel and is responsible for overseeing all aspects of scouting and player development. Originally joining the staff as an area scouting supervisor for the Mid-Atlantic states, Moore was promoted to the front office in August 1996 as an assistant in the Baseball Operations Department. He was named Assistant Director of Scouting in November of 1996. In 1999, Moore worked as the Assistant Director of Scouting and Assistant Director of Player Development. He was promoted to Director of International Scouting during the 2000 baseball season.

Prior to coming on board with the Braves, Moore served as an assistant baseball coach at George Mason University from 1990-1994. While working on a graduate degree, Moore managed the Winchester Royals of the Shenandoah Valley League from 1991 to 1993.

A native of Wichita, Kansas, Moore graduated from George Mason University in 1989 with a degree in Physical Education and Health. Three years later he earned his master's degree in Athletic Administration from GMU. Moore, 38, and his wife Marianne, reside in Duluth, GA, with their two daughters, Ashley and Avery, and son Robert.

Roy Clark

Director of Scouting

Roy Clark, with the Braves in various scouting capacities since 1989, was named Director of Scouting in July of 1999 and in that role is primarily responsible for directing the amateur scouting for the entire organization.

Clark, 48, a national supervisor in the Braves' scouting department from 1996 until his appointment as Director, served as an area scout for the club from 1989 through 1994. He spent 1995 as scouting supervisor for the Southeast.

Prior to joining the Braves, Clark was a coach in the Seattle Mariners' organization in 1984 and 1985 and an area scout for the Mariners the next two years. He was an area scout for the Cleveland Indians in 1988 and the first part of 1989.

Clark, an all-Atlantic Coast Conference infielder at North Carolina in 1979, was selected by the Mariners in the 24th round of the June draft that year. He advanced as high as the AAA Pacific Coast League in 1982. He and his wife, Debbie have three children, Justin, Travis and Lauren.

Dick Balderson

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Balderson returned to Scouting in 2003 after having served as the Braves' Director of Player Development since July of 1999. He had previously worked as a major league scout for the Braves from 1997-1999. Balderson, 59, joined the Braves after having served the Colorado Rockies as Director of Player Development from 1992 through 1994 and then Vice President - Player Personnel from 1995 through 1997.

He began his executive career as assistant farm director for the Kansas City Royals in 1976. After a series of promotions that culminated with his being appointed Director of Scouting and Player Development in 1981, he moved to the Seattle Mariners as Vice President of Baseball Operations from October of 1985 until November of 1988. He then joined the Chicago Cubs as Director of Scouting before being named Vice President of Scouting and Player Development in 1990.

A former pitcher in the Royals' minor league system, Balderson is a graduate of the University of Richmond and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1995.

Tim Conroy

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Tim Conroy was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League Scout in December of 2004. Entering his fifth year with the Braves organization, he previously served as a National Crosschecker for two years (2004, 2003) and was a National Supervisor for two years (2001, 2002).

A former pitcher, Conroy was drafted in the first round of the 1978 amateur draft by Oakland and spent eight years (1978-1985) in the Athletics organization before being traded to St. Louis in 1986. Conroy pitched his final three seasons in St. Louis and rejoined the organization in 1994 to begin his scouting career. Conroy was an Area Scout from 1994-1998 and served as an East Coast Regional Supervisor from 1999-2000 for the Cardinals.

Tim, his wife Michele, and their two daughters, Jenna and Brooke reside in Monroeville, PA. Their son, T.J. is a junior in college.

Jim Fregosi

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Jim Fregosi joined the Atlanta Braves in November of 2000 after spending two years as manager of the Toronto Blue Jays.

Fregosi opened his managerial career in 1978 and spent four seasons with the California Angels. He managed three seasons with the Chicago White Sox (1986-88), six with the Philadelphia Phillies (1991-1996) and two with the Blue Jays (1999-2000). Fregosi posted a career mark of 1028-1095 and has taken two teams into postseason play. In 1979, he led the Angels to their first playoff appearance and in 1993 was in charge of a Phillies team that won the National League Pennant before falling to the Blue Jays in the World Series.

Fregosi served as the Special Assistant to the General Manager for the San Francisco Giants during the 1997 and 1998 seasons. During his 18-year Major League playing career, the former shortstop spent time with Los Angeles (AL), California, New York (NL), Texas, and Pittsburgh. A career .265 hitter, Fregosi was named to the American League All-Star team six times.

Duane Larson

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Duane Larson came to the Braves organization in 2003 from Toronto, where he worked in scouting and player development for 26 years. Larson joined the Blue Jays organization in 1977, working as a minor league scout and Manager of Utica in the New York-Penn League. The former infielder played in the Padres system from 1972-1976, and began coaching as a player/coach with Reno of the California League in 1975 and 1976. From 1982-1984, Larson managed at Medicine Hat, where he took the team to a Pioneer League Championship in 1982. In 1985 Larson became a scouting supervisor. He was named a special assignment scout in 1994, and in 1996 Larson captured Toronto's Al LaMacchia Award for excellence in scouting. Larson graduated from the University of Santa Clara, majoring in Economics.

Jose Martinez

Special Assistant to the General Manager Player Development

Jose Martinez, whose professional baseball career dates back to 1960, is in his 10th year as Special Assistant to the General Manager/Player Development. Martinez, 63, came to the Braves before the 1995 season after serving eight years as the Chicago Cubs' first base coach.

Martinez spent 12 years (1960-71) as an infielder in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization, playing for the major league club in 1969 and 1970, and then played three seasons (1972-1974) with the Royals' AAA Omaha team. He managed four years in Kansas City's farm system, 1976 and 1978-79 at Sarasota and 1977 at Daytona Beach before coaching for the Royals from 1980 through 1987.

Martinez stayed active in the winter, managing in Colombia, South America, from 1979 through 1984, winning three championships and being named Manager of the Year in 1980-1982. He also worked in the Venezuelan winter league, managing at LaGuaira in 1985-87, Barquisimeto in 1988 and Cabimas in 1992. His 1985 LaGuaira team won the Venezuelan championship and finished second in the Caribbean series.

Chuck McMichael

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Chuck McMichael joined the Atlanta organization in September of 2000 as Special Assistant to the General Manager and Major League Scout. McMichael served as Director of Scouting in the Texas Rangers' organization from 1996 until 2000.

Before going to the Rangers, McMichael had spent fifteen years as a scout with the Kansas City Royals' organization, the last ten of those as a National Crosschecker. He originally signed with the Royals as a lefthanded pitcher in 1979 and played three years in their minor league system. McMichael became an area scout in Los Angeles in 1982, moved to the Northern California area in 1985, and became National Crosschecker in 1987. He has been involved in scouting and signing of major leaguers such as Mike McFarlane, Jeff Conine and Carlos Beltran.

McMichael pitched on the University of Arizona 1976 National Championship team and went on to graduate from LaVerne (CA) College. McMichael is married to his wife Rebecca and has two sons, Patrick and Andrew.

Paul Snyder

Special Assistant to the General Manager Major League Scout

Paul Snyder, Special Assistant to the General Manager, was honored with the Excellence in Scouting Award for the last 20 years (1982-2001) by Baseball America in December, 2001. In 1992, Snyder was named the East Coast Scout of the Year by the Scout of the Year Foundation. He has been with the Braves' organization since he signed as a player in 1957. Snyder served as Director of Scouting and Player Development from 1996-1999 and in 2000 became Special Assistant to the General Manager, a position he had previously held from 1991-1995.

Snyder's playing career was slowed by a back operation in 1960 and, by 1963, he had become a player-manager at Greenville. After managing West Palm Beach in 1965, he spent 1966, the Braves' first season in Atlanta, as Director of Stadium Operations. He became a scout in 1967, managed Greenwood in 1972 and then was named Bill Lucas' Assistant Minor League Administrator the next season.

The Braves then promoted him to Director of Scouting in 1977 and Assistant Vice President of Scouting in 1983. Snyder and his wife, Petie, live in Murphy, NC, have two children, Michael and Lauren, and four grandchildren.

Tyrone Brooks

Director of Baseball Operations

Tyrone Brooks, Director of Baseball Operations, was named to his current position in July of 2004, where he assists the baseball operations department with major league and minor league roster analysis and research, salary arbitration, contract negotiations and statistical analysis.

Brooks rejoined the Braves' front office staff as Assistant/Player Personnel in August of 2002, after serving three years as Area Scouting Supervisor for Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Brooks originally joined the Braves organization as a Baseball Operations Trainee in May of 1996 through the Atlanta Braves' Career Initiative Program. He was then hired as Administrative Assistant/Scouting and Player Development in July of 1996 before being promoted to Baseball Operations Assistant in November of 1996. He served as Baseball Operations Assistant until being named Area Scouting Supervisor in November of 1999.

A native of Glen Burnie, MD, Brooks graduated from the University of Maryland at College Park in 1996, double-majoring in Accounting and Marketing. While at the University of Maryland, he was a staff photographer for the Terrapin Yearbook and the highly-acclaimed student newspaper, The Diamondback.

He currently serves as a board member for the Greater Midwest Professional Baseball Scouts Association in St. Louis, MO and is active as part of the Buck O'Neil Professional Scouts and Coaches Association. Brooks, 31, and his wife, Stephanie, reside in Atlanta.

Marco Paddy

Director of Latin American Operations

Marco Paddy was named the Director of Latin American Operations in August 2004. Paddy previously held the position of Assistant Director of Player Development from August 2002 until August 2004 and prior to that role spent nine years as an Area Scouting Supervisor in Georgia, Florida and the country of Panama. Marco's responsibilities include developing cultural assimilation programs for all Braves international players who play in the United States and at the Braves academy in San Francisco De Marcoris.

He was selected by the Braves as a catcher in the 1988 Free Agent Draft and signed by Ralph Garr. After his professional career ended, he served as Assistant Coach and Recruiting Coordinator for his alma mater, Southern University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Paddy earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering and his master's degree in Administration, both from Southern University. Paddy, 41, a native of Panama, currently lives in Atlanta with his wife Guadalupe, his son Marco Jr. and his daughter, Victoria.

Chino Cadahia

Minor League Field Coordinator

After two years as the roving catching instructor for the Atlanta Braves, Chino Cadahia was named to the position of Minor League Field Coordinator in November of 1997.

Cadahia, 47, came to the Braves in 1996 after serving in the Texas Rangers organization for 12 years as a pitching coach and manager in their minor league system. He began his coaching career as a pitching coach at Salem of the Carolina League from 1984 through 1985. The following year he managed Daytona Beach of the Florida State League. In 1987 he managed at Gastonia of the South Atlantic League. During his last stint, 1988 through 1995, Cadahia managed the Rangers Gulf Coast League rookie squad in Port Charlotte, Florida.

After being drafted by Philadelphia out of Miami-Dade Community College, Cadahia spent seven minor league seasons, 1977 to 1983, with the Phillies and Minnesota Twins. Chino and his wife Lynn reside in Visalia, CA, with daughter Lauren.

J.J. Picollo

Assistant Director of Player Development

J.J. Picollo was promoted to the front office and named the Assistant Director of Player Development in July 2004 after serving as an Area Scouting Supervisor for Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Washington, DC, the previous five years. J.J.'s responsibilities include assisting in all aspects of the minor league operation.

Prior to joining the Braves in 1999, Picollo served as a Recruiting Coordinator and Hitting/Catching Instructor for a total of five years, three at George Mason University and two at George Washington University.

Picollo was drafted on two different occasions (CIN-1989, CIN-1993) and eventually signed with the New York Yankees after his senior year at GMU in 1994. He played his first two years of college baseball at North Carolina State University and earned his bachelor's degree in Communications at GMU and his master's degree in Sport Administration from GWU. J.J. and his wife Nicole reside in Duluth, GA, with their three children, Michael, Ryan, and Lauren.

2005 Minor League Directory

Richmond Braves

P.O. Box 6667
Richmond, VA 23230
(804) 359-4444

Stadium: The Diamond
3001 N. Boulevard
Richmond, VA 23230
League: International
Class: AAA

General Manager: Bruce Baldwin
P.R. Director: John Emmett

Manager: Pat Kelly returns for his third season as the Richmond Braves Manager. Prior to joining the Braves organization he spent two years as a special assignment scout for the Toronto Blue Jays. During the 2000 season, Kelly guided the Blue Jays' Triple-A affiliate in Syracuse. Seven of his 16 seasons as a manager have been at the Triple-A level and include stops at Las Vegas (1990), Indianapolis (1991-92), Ottawa (1997-98), and Syracuse (1999-2000). Kelly began his coaching career in 1983 with the White Sox.

Kelly, whose major league career consists of three games with the Blue Jays in 1980, was a catcher in the minor leagues from 1973 through 1983. Originally a third round selection of the California Angels in the 1973 June draft, he was traded to Toronto in December of 1977. The Braves chose Kelly in the Rule 5 draft in December of 1981 and he played with the club's affiliates at Class A Durham under current Braves bullpen coach Bobby Dews and AA Savannah in 1982. Kelly, 49, resides in Sarasota, FL, with his wife Becky and three children, Chris, Chelsea and Casey.

Pitching Coach: Mike Alvarez joins the Richmond Braves after serving as a Roving Pitcher Instructor during the 2004 season. Prior to that, Alvarez worked as the pitching coach for Greenville in 2003 and Danville in 2002. He started with the organization in 1998 when he worked as Greenville's Pitching Coach for three seasons. Under Alvarez's direction in 2002, the Danville Braves pitching staff led the Appalachian League with a 3.31 ERA and 584 strikeouts. Alvarez joined Danville in 2001 after spending half of the season as a roving pitching coach and the other half of the season as Jamestown's pitching coach. Alvarez spent 13 years as a pitching coach with the Kansas City Royals organization, including five years as the pitching coach of the Pacific Coast League's AAA Omaha Royals. Alvarez's ties to the Southern League began when he served as pitching coach for the Baseball City Royals (1988-1990), Appleton Foxes (1987), and Ft. Meyers Royals (1985-1986).

A former right-handed pitcher, Alvarez played for both the Baltimore Orioles (1980-1981) and Kansas City Royals (1981-1984). After graduating from Hialeah High School he attended Louisiana State University. Alvarez, 42, and his wife Thelma reside in Miami, FL, with their son, Kyle.

Coach: Rick Albert enters his third year with the Richmond Braves. Before joining Richmond in 2003 Albert managed the Gulf Coast League Braves for five years (1998-2002). Albert was named the Braves organization's Manager of the Year in 2000 after leading the team to a 26-34 record and a third place finish in the Eastern Division race. In 1999, Albert led the GCL Braves to a 27-33 mark.

Albert, 51, a West Seneca, New York, native, has been a player, manager or coach within the Atlanta Braves organization every year since 1972. In previous managerial stops within the Atlanta Braves farm system, Albert managed at Burlington (1988), Anderson (1983-1984), and Pulaski (1982). In addition, Albert has coached at various levels within the Braves farm system, including Richmond (1987), Durham (1994), Eugene (1996), Bradenton (1978-1981, 1989-1991), and the complex-based Gulf Coast Braves (1992, 1993, 1995). Rick, his wife, Veronica, and their three children, Keith, Luke and Jill, reside in Hollywood, FL.

Trainer: Jay Williams begins his third season with the Richmond Braves after spending eight years as the athletic trainer at Double-A Greenville. Aside from his trainer duties for the Richmond Braves, Jay is also responsible for coordinating the Atlanta Braves minor league training staff.

Williams, 39, is a three-time winner of the Southern League's Trainer of the Year award, garnering the honor in 1998, 2000, and 2001. Named Minor League Baseball's Outstanding Trainer by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society in 1998, Jay has been in the Braves' organization since 1994. In addition to working for the Greenville Braves from 1996-2002, Williams logged two seasons with the Durham Bulls in 1994 and 1995. He served as trainer in the Montreal Expos' and Milwaukee Brewers' systems prior to joining the Atlanta organization. This marks Williams' second stint in the International League as he served as the athletic trainer for the Ottawa Lynx in 1993.

Stadium: Mississippi Braves Stadium
One Braves Way
Pearl, MS 39208
League: Southern
Class: AA
General Manager: Steve DeSalvo
P.R. Director: Nicholas Skinner

Manager: Brian Snitker returns for his fourth season as the Braves organization's AA manager. His previous three seasons were at Greenville. Snitker spent 1999-2001 as the Myrtle Beach Pelicans' manager, winning two championships in three years. In 2000, Snitker led Myrtle Beach to an 88-52 record, winning the Southern Division by 11 games. In 1998, as manager of the Macon Braves, Snitker led an inexperienced club to a second half South Atlantic League title with a 39-32 record. In 1997, he led the Macon Braves to an 80-60 season which included winning both first and second half division titles. For his efforts, Snitker was named Manager of the Year in the South Atlantic League. In 1996, Snitker led the Danville Braves of the Appalachian League to a second place finish with a 37-29 record. His previous managerial stops also include Macon (1992), Durham (1983, 1984, and 1987), Sumter (1986), and Anderson (1982). Snitker also served as bullpen coach on the Atlanta Braves major league coaching staff during the 1985 season and from 1988-1990.

Signed by the Braves as a free agent in 1977, Snitker was a catcher for four years in the team's minor league system. His best season was 1979, when he hit .255 with eight HR and 30 RBI in 75 games at Savannah. He is credited with hitting one of the longest homers ever seen at Orlando's Tinker Field, belting a ball over 500 feet on May 6, 1979. Snitker, a 1973 graduate of Macon (IL) High School, attended the University of New Orleans. Brian and his wife, Veronica, reside in Lilburn, GA, with their two children, Erin and Troy.

Pitching Coach: Kent Willis returns for his tenth season as a coach in the Atlanta Braves farm system and his first with the Mississippi Braves. During the 2004 season Willis served as the coach for the Rome Braves. In 2003, his pitching staff finished with a 2.95 ERA, second best in the league. Willis spent the 1998 season with the Gulf Coast Braves, sharing coaching duties with veteran pitching coach Eddie Watt. The duo also shared duties in 1996 during Willis' first season of professional coaching. Willis spent the 1997 season as pitching coach for the Danville Braves of the Appalachian League. During the winter of 1997, he served as a pitching coach for Escogido of the Dominican Summer League. The previous winter he was a pitching coach with Lagaira of the Venezuelan Winter League.

Willis, 37, pitched four years in the minor leagues within the Cincinnati Reds, Kansas City Royals and Montreal Expos organizations from 1986-1989. A native of Columbus, Mississippi, Willis received his degree in Athletic Administration and Sociology from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1987. Kent and his wife, Sheila, reside in Jackson, MS, with their two children, Carlo and Kenyatta.

Coach: Phil Wellman joins the Mississippi Braves after managing for one season (2004) with the Danville Braves. Prior to that he coached in the Cincinnati Reds organization since 1996. His coaching career began in 1988 when he was a hitting instructor for the Pulaski Braves. Wellman coached in the Braves organization from 1988-1991 before becoming manager of the extended spring Baltimore Gulf Coast team for a year before joining the Reds.

Wellman's playing days lasted from 1984-1987. He spent his first three minor league seasons in the Atlanta Braves farm system with Anderson ('84), Sumter ('85), and Durham ('86), and then moved on to play in the Twins and Pirates farm systems. He attended Sam Houston State University from 1980-1982 and earned a Bachelor of Science in Education from Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas, in 1985. He was selected as a coach for the Futures Game in 2002 and selected as "Prospect Manager" of the Southern League by Baseball America in 2003. Wellman, 42, resides in Spring Branch, TX, with his wife, Montee, and their two children Britnee, 16, and Brett, 13.

Trainer: Mike Graus begins his 13th season with the Braves. Graus originally started with the Idaho Falls Braves and has had assignments in Danville, Eugene, Macon and Myrtle Beach. He graduated from the University of Alabama-Birmingham and became a certified trainer in 1991. Graus has spent several winters in the instructional league as well as in the Venezuelan winter league. Graus, his wife, Erica, and their daughter Ashton, reside in Surfside Beach, SC.

(843) 918-6016

Stadium: Coastal Federal Field
1251 21st Avenue North
Myrtle Beach, SC 29577
League: Carolina
Class: A

General Manager: Gary Saunders
Assistant General Manager: Matt Harris

Manager: Randy Ingle returns to the Myrtle Beach Pelicans for his fourth straight season, after leading the team to a 75-63 record in 2004. Prior to joining the Pelicans, Ingle managed in Macon for one year (2001) and in Richmond for two years (1999-2000). Ingle, who has twice been named the organization's Manager of the Year (1996 & '97), will be in his 14th season as a manager in the Braves' minor league system. He made the move up to Richmond after leading the Greenville Braves to a 67-72 record in 1998, which included a 37-32 second-place finish in the second half. In 1997, Ingle led the Greenville Braves to the Southern League Championship and was named Southern League Manager of the Year. In 1996, he led the Durham Bulls of the Carolina League to a 73-66 record, including a 38-31 first place finish in the first half. Ingle's previous managerial stints also include stops at Macon (1993) and Pulaski (1990-1992). Ingle, a former infielder, played within the Braves farm system from 1979 to 1987, including an appointment as a player-coach at Greenville in 1987. Randy and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Forest City, NC, with their two children, Taylor and Meghan.

Pitching Coach: Bruce Dal Canton returns for his seventh season as pitching coach with Myrtle Beach. In 2004, Dal Canton's pitching staff led the Carolina League with 1,051 strikeouts and 19 shutouts and placed second in the league with a 3.44 ERA. In 2002, his pitching staff finished with a 70-61 record and a 3.20 ERA (2nd in the Carolina League) and in 2000, his Pelicans' pitching staff led the Carolina League with a team ERA of 2.51. Prior to joining Myrtle Beach in 1999, Dal Canton worked with the Danville 97's in the same capacity. He served as pitching coach with the Greenville Braves from 1994-1997, which included a Southern League Championship in 1997. Dal Canton, 59, was pitching coach for the Richmond Braves from 1991 to 1993 after serving the major league staff as its pitching coach from 1987 to 1990. Dal Canton has been a fixture in the organization since 1982 when he joined the Atlanta Braves as a roving minor league pitching instructor. He was pitching coach at Savannah in 1983, Greenville in 1984, and Richmond in 1985 and 1986.

Over a 12-year major league career beginning in 1967, Dal Canton compiled a 51-49 log as a spot starter with the Pirates, Royals, Braves and White Sox. Primarily a reliever with Pittsburgh, Dal Canton went 20-8 for the Pirates between 1967 and 1970. He pitched over a year without a loss, recording a 7-0 mark from June 29, 1969 to July 20, 1970. With Kansas City, Dal Canton set a Royals' club record (later broken by Steve Busby in 1974) when he retired 23 consecutive batters against the Yankees on August 14, 1972. Signed by the Braves after his release by Kansas City in 1975, Dal Canton pitched in Atlanta through 1976. The White Sox signed him as a free agent in April of 1977, and after his release in June of 1978, he served as the White Sox pitching coach for the remainder of the season.

Dal Canton attended California University of Pennsylvania and the University of West Virginia, earning a B.S. degree in Education and a Master's Degree in Biology. Bruce and his wife, Helene, reside in Carnegie, PA.

Coach: Franklin Stubbs joins the Myrtle Beach Pelicans coaching staff after serving as a Roving Instructor for two years (2003-2004) in the Atlanta Braves organization. Prior to the 2003 season Stubbs was the Minor League Hitting Instructor from 1999-2002 and during the 1998 season he managed the Danville 97's, the Braves A Carolina League affiliate. Stubbs originally joined the Braves in 1997 as a Coach for the Danville Braves.

Originally drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers as a first round draft pick in 1982, Stubbs played 10 years in the major leagues for four different clubs, including Los Angeles (1984-1989), Houston (1990), Milwaukee (1991-1992) and Detroit (1995) and was a member of the 1988 World Series Champion Los Angeles Dodgers. Franklin attended Virginia Tech University and was inducted into the Athletics Hall of Fame in 1992. Franklin, 45, and his wife LaTanya reside in Prospect, KY, with their four children, Paige, Blaine, Michael and Celeste.

Trainer: Drew Van Dam enters his first year with the Myrtle Beach Pelicans. Van Dam spent the two previous seasons (2003-2004) working as the Rome Braves trainer. Before joining Rome, Van Dam served as trainer for the Danville Braves in the Appalachian League. He played baseball at Springfield College where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training in 2000. He also earned a master's degree in Athletic Training from Ohio University in 2001.

League: South Atlantic
Class: A
General Manager: Mike Dunn

Manager: Ralph "Rocket" Wheeler returns to Rome for his third consecutive year. During the 2003 season, Wheeler led the Rome Braves to the South Atlantic League Championship with a 78-61 overall record and a 1st-half division title en route to being named the Braves' minor league system's Minor League Coach of the Year. A native of Houston, Texas, Wheeler spent 26 seasons in the Toronto Blue Jays organization as a player, coach, and manager. From 2000-2002, he was Manager of the Tennessee Smokies of the Southern League.

The 48-year-old Wheeler, attended the University of Houston where he majored in Health and Physical Education, while playing baseball for the Cougars. Wheeler played six years in the Blue Jays farm system and began his coaching career in 1981 while also a full-time player at Florence. In 1999 at Dunedin, Wheeler was named Florida State League Manager of the Year, taking his team to a 85-51 record. In 1996 at St. Catharine, Wheeler was awarded the inaugural Bobby Mattick Award for excellence in player development after being named the Manager of the Year in the New York-Penn League. He now resides in Pawleys Island, SC, with his wife Leigh and their son Marty, and daughter Kate.

Pitching Coach: Jim Czajkowski comes to the Rome Braves staff from the Danville Braves where he was the pitching coach for three seasons (2002-2004). An Atlanta Braves' 29th-round selection in the 1986 June draft, the Pittsburgh Pirates obtained him in the Rule 5 draft on December 5, 1989. After a year with the Pirates, he was traded to the Milwaukee Brewers. From 1990-1992, he played for the Brewers until he signed as a free agent with the Chicago Cubs. The Colorado Rockies acquired him in 1993 as a free agent. He had his first Major League call up in 1994 for the Rockies. Czajkowski finished his professional career with the Toronto Blue Jays in 1996. He ended his playing career with 121 career saves. Czajkowski prides himself in being a member of four championship teams: Colorado Springs (Rockies) AAA, 1995; Iowa Cubs (Cubs) AAA, 1993; Acericbo Wolves, Puerto Rico, 1995; and Stockton Ports (Brewers) A, 1990. Czajkowski and his wife, Cheri, reside in Sevierville, TN, with their sons Josh and Zak.

Coach: Bobby Moore begins his ninth season of professional coaching and his fifth season with Rome. Moore spent the 1998-1999 season coaching for the Braves' AA affiliate in Greenville. In 1998, he worked under Paul Runge with the Danville 97's. In 1997, his inaugural season of professional coaching, Moore served as a coach with the Eugene Emeralds of the Northwest League. Moore played with the Braves organization from 1992-1996, when in 1996 a fractured hip cut short his last season in Richmond, A 16th-round draft pick by the Kansas City Royals in 1987, Moore attended Eastern Kentucky University before beginning his first season of professional baseball at Eugene. In 1987, his rookie season, Moore was named to the Northwest League All-Star team after batting .374 and stealing 23 bases in 57 games. In 1989, he led the Florida State League with 85 runs scored. The following year he was named to the Southern League All-Star team after producing a .303 BA and swiping 27 bases in 112 games. During the 1991 season, Moore received a call-up to the majors with the Kansas City Royals which lasted 18 games, resulting in a .357 average in 14 at bats. In December of 1991, Moore was traded to the Atlanta Braves in exchange for Rico Rossy. He spent the 1992 season at Richmond and after a one-year stint playing for the Laredos of the Mexican League, he rejoined the Royals organization in 1994 before being signed as a free agent by the Richmond Braves in June of that year. Moore finished the conclusion of the 1994 season in a flurry, hitting .366 in 60 games along with 10 steals. During his 10-year professional baseball career, from 1987-1996, Moore compiled a .279 average and had 175 stolen bases. Bobby and his wife, Jane, reside in his hometown of Cincinnati, OH, with their son, Robert.

Trainer: Mike Dart enters his first year with the Rome Braves. Dart spent the past two seasons (2003-2004) working as the Pelicans trainer and originally joined the Braves organization from the University of Idaho, where he was a Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer for the football team for two years. Dart graduated from Eastern Washington University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Medicine and Exercise Science in 1997. Dart and his wife, Lavena, reside in Moscow, ID, with their two daughters, Victoria and Alivia.

Danville, VA 24540
League: Appalachian
Class: Rookie Advanced
General Manager: Dave Cross

Manager: Paul Runge's affiliation with the Atlanta Braves dates back to 1979 when Atlanta selected him in the ninth round of the draft as a shortstop out of Jacksonville University. Runge previously served as the Manager of the Greenville Braves from 1999-2001 and spent the 1998 season as a manager of the Danville 97's, the Atlanta Braves Class A Carolina League affiliate. The 97's, a one-year wonder, moved to their new location in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina after a 58-82 mark under Runge. In 1997 Runge managed the Durham Bulls to a 63-76 record, their final season of affiliation with the Atlanta Braves organization. In previous stops within the Braves farm system, Runge managed at Macon (1996), Eugene (1995), Danville (1994) and Idaho Falls (1993). Runge began his coaching career in 1992 as a coach for Idaho Falls. In addition, Runge also has managed in the Arizona Fall League (1997) and the Australian Winter League (1994-1995). As a player, Runge played for the Atlanta Braves from 1981-1988 before ending his playing career with the San Diego Padres (1989) and Toronto Blue Jays (1990) organizations. Paul and his wife, Rae, have one child and live in Clewiston, FL.

Pitching Coach: Derek Botelho comes to the Danville coaching staff from the Gulf Coast League Braves where he was the pitching coach for two seasons (2003-2004). During the 2003 season, Botelho led the pitching staff to the third best combined ERA in the GCL. Prior to joining the Braves organization, Botelho spent the past 12 seasons as a pitching coach in the Reds organization. The former right-handed hurler pitched professionally from 1976-1989, including Major League stints with Kansas City (1982) and Chicago-NL (1985). He attended Miami Dade South Junior College and was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1976. In his minor league career, Botelho compiled over 100 wins. Botelho, 47, resides in Burlington, IA.

Coach: Mel Roberts begins his ninth year with the Braves organization and his first season as the coach of the Danville Braves. Roberts spent seven years combined (2001-2004 and 1996-1998) as the coach of the Braves' AA affiliate in Greenville. From 1999-2000 Roberts coached the Richmond Braves. Prior to joining the Atlanta Braves organization, Roberts served as first base coach for the Philadelphia Phillies from 1992-1995. He managed the Spartanburg Phillies from 1988 to 1991 where he won the South Atlantic League Championship in 1988 and was also named as an All-Star manager. Roberts began his coaching career in 1969 with the Phillies organization as a player-coach with Raleigh-Durham. He later worked as a roving outfield instructor (1984, 1986) prior to managing at Bend (OR) in 1987.

Roberts, a former outfielder, played nine years of professional baseball from 1961-1970, signing first with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1961. He was out of professional baseball in 1965, playing semi-pro ball for Jenkintown. He signed with the Phillies organization in September of 1965 and played through 1970. After graduating from Abington High School in Abington, PA., Roberts, 60, attended Temple University and Spartanburg Tech. His commitment to the youth of Spartanburg, resulted in the establishment of the Mel Roberts Scholarship Fund. Spartanburg Mayor James Talley proclaimed July 26, 1993 Mel Roberts Day in the community. Roberts and his wife, Lucille, reside in Spartanburg, SC. They have two sons, Jimmy and Juan, and two daughters, Jacqueline and Linda.

Trainer: Tyson Burton returns to the Danville Braves for his third season with the team. Burton is a candidate for a Masters in Exercise Science degree at Utah State University. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Sports Medicine and a Bachelor of Science in Education at Whitworth College where he also worked for the football and baseball teams. Burton is originally from Reno, Nevada, and has worked with professional teams such as the Arizona Cardinals and the Yuma Bullfrogs of the Independent Western Baseball League.

Manager: Luis Ortiz comes to the Gulf Coast League Braves after managing the Danville Braves in 2004 and the Braves Dominican Summer League in 2003. From 1977 through 1980, Ortiz played professionally in the Yankees minor league system winning four championships in three years. After retiring from playing, Ortiz joined the United States Army where he served 22 years from 1981 until 2002. He served as a part-time scout for the Texas Rangers from 1998 through December 2002 before taking the reins as manager of the Atlanta Braves Dominican Summer League. Ortiz led Braves number 2 DSL team to a 39-27 record and a third place finish overall. He resides in San Antonio, TX, with his wife, Noris. His daughter, Siobahn, 19, attends college in San Antonio.

Pitching Coach: Derrick Lewis' affiliation with the Atlanta Braves organization dates back to 1997 when the Braves selected him in the 20th round of the June free agent draft. Lewis spent six years (1997-2003) as a pitcher in the Braves minor league system and was selected by the Braves organization as the Myrtle Beach Pitcher of the Year in 1999 when he finished second in the Carolina League in ERA. Lewis enters his second season as a pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Braves. Derrick and his wife, Roslyn, reside in Montgomery, AL.

Coach: Sixto Lezcano begins his sixth season in the Braves' organization and fifth season with the Gulf Coast League Braves. After seven years as a member of the Kansas City Royals coaching staff, Lezcano spent 2000 as manager of the Braves affiliate in the Carolina League. Lezcano served as the Royals' Minor League Outfield Instructor from 1997 through 1999. Prior to being an instructor, Lezcano was a coach at the Class A Wilmington Blue Rocks from 1994 through 1996. In 1993, Lezcano was a coach at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate. The former Major League outfielder played in 1,291 games covering 12 seasons. Lezcano hit .271 with 148 home runs and 591 RBI. He began his career in Milwaukee in 1974 and played with the Brewers for seven years before being traded to St. Louis in 1981. Lezcano played for San Diego in 1982-83, Philadelphia in 1983-84 and Pittsburgh in 1985. He was a member of Philadelphia's World Championship team in 1983. Lezcano also played in Japan and in the Senior League. Lezcano, 49 years old, resides in Orlando, FL, with his wife, Mariangelly, daughter, Zurielle, and sons Michael, Steve, and Sergio.

Coach: Jim Saul returns to the GCL Braves for a fourth season. Saul has 15 years of managerial experience within the Atlanta Braves organization. Prior to joining the GCL Braves, Saul managed the Jamestown Jammers for three seasons. Saul managed at various stops within the Braves farm system, including at Eugene (1996-1998), Burlington (1990), Bradenton (GCL; 1991), and West Palm Beach (GCL; 1992-1995). From 1973 to 1988, he managed and coached within the Chicago Cubs, California Angels, and New York Yankees organizations. Also, he spent the 1975 and 1976 seasons as a member of the Chicago Cubs major league coaching staff, working under manager Jim Marshall. Saul's playing career lasted from 1959 to 1972, as he played for the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds, and Chicago Cubs organizations. Saul, 63, attended East Tennessee State University after graduating from Virginia High School in Bristol, Virginia. Jim and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Bristol, VA, and have two daughters, Chelsey and Wendy.

Trainer: Ricky Alcantara returns for his second season in the Braves organization with the Gulf Coast League Braves. Alcantara received a Bachelors degree in Exercise Sports and Sciences from Texas State University in San Marcos in May 2003. He served as head athletic trainer for baseball in 2003, women's soccer in 2002, and track and field in 2002, while majoring in Athletic Training and acquiring a minor in Health and Wellness Promotion. Alcantara was an intern for the Braves Instructional League in 2003 and also worked a Colorado Rockies home stand from July 9-13, 2003. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association as well as being certified by the American Red Cross for CPR and First Aid. Alcantara is a licensed and certified athletic trainer and resides in Dallas, TX.

2004 Review: Honored as the South Atlantic League Pitcher of the Year and was selected to the Sally League regular season and postseason All-Star teams. Led the Rome Braves and was tied for fourth among Braves minor leaguers in wins with 10. Recorded the second lowest ERA in the Sally League and the lowest ERA (2.25) for Rome and ranked second in the Sally League and led Rome in strikeouts (156). Named the April Player of the month posting a 3-0 record with a 0.93 ERA, while striking out 21 in 19.1 IP. Continued to dominate the Sally League receiving May Pitcher of the month honors, earning three wins with a 1.82 ERA and averaged 1.02 strike outs per inning. Opponents hit just .109 during the month of May. 2003: Named the Braves' Pitcher of the Year for Danville. Had the lowest ERA (1.25) and most strikeouts (68) on the Danville Braves' pitching staff. His strike-out total ranked second in the Appalachian League. Fell 3.2 innings short of the 54.0 IP minimum to qualify for the league lead in ERA, but his 1.25 ERA would have placed first.

Braves In The World Series

1914 World Series - Boston 4, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves," who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 World Series - Cleveland 4, Boston 2

The Braves, under manager Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost in the World Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in Game 5, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive home runs off Feller.

1957 World Series - Milwaukee 4, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' 10th-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days' rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 World Series - New York 4, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come back from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two games and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 World Series - Minnesota 4, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first NL player in Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and Series MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 World Series - Toronto 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (the last three setbacks to the Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's sixth-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a comeback 5-4 win, sparked by a ninth-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of three runs over Games 3 and 4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the ninth on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8-for-15) with five stolen bases.

1995 World Series - Atlanta 4, Cleveland 2

The Braves captured Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 postseason hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a postseason. Grissom hit safely in all 14 postseason contests, the longest streak ever in one postseason. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the postseason 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for postseason hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the '95 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston (1914) and Milwaukee (1957).

1996 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 2

All signs pointed towards a second straight world championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two at-bats in Game 1 (3-for-4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only six hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, two were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had three RBI in Game 2, after getting two in Game 1, to give him 15 RBI for the postseason, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the postseason. Including the final three victories over the Cardinals in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a two-run homer in the eighth inning of Game 3, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the eighth, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a three-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz 1-0 in Game 5, with the only score coming on a fourth-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for three runs in the third in their 3-2 victory.

The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

1999 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 0

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to just nine runs in a four-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the fourth, but the Yankees parlayed three hits, three walks and two errors into four runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's ninth-inning single. After the offense's two-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the ninth inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for five runs (four ER) on eight hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked three doubles in the first four innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead. A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the fifth and Tino Martinez in the seventh to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the eighth on a two-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless ninth sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final six innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shutout Atlanta over the first seven innings of Game 4, and the Yankees' three-run third proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' eighth straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

1991 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 series ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Series MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Pirates in Game 2. The Bucs captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for Game 7 drama. Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the ninth scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win. With their improbable ninth-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive postseason game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 League Championship Series - Philadelphia 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves with a .435 series batting average.

1995 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned to the World Series for the third time in the last four Fall Classics by sweeping the Reds with the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game in the top of the ninth. Series MVP Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a three-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory in Game 3. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4 with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a three-run homer. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their postseason saga by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS, as they crushed the Cardinals 32-1 over the final three games. Game 1 saw Javy Lopez break a tie in the eighth with a bases-loaded, two-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 win behind John Smoltz. Chipper Jones led the attack by going 4-for-4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his fourth save in four appearances in the '96 postseason. The momentum in the series shifted in Game 2 when Gary Gaetti's seventh-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into an 8-3 victory. In Game 3, Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with two outs and no one on in the St. Louis seventh, but the Redbirds fought back to tie the score, then claimed the lead for good in the eighth on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five first-inning runs in a 14-0 win, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez went 4-for-5 with two doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added four hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. In Game 6, Maddux blanked the Cardinals through seven innings en route to a 3-1 win. Mark Wohlers' eighth-inning wild pitch accounted for the only Cardinals run in the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored six in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's three-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 rout broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent Atlanta to its fourth World Series out of the last five played. Lopez MVP honors, batting .542 (13-for-24) with five doubles, two HRs and six RBI.

1997 League Championship Series - Florida 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record sixth straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only one unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for five runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to three hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a three-run double off John Smoltz in the sixth inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on four hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series 2-2. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in Game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only five hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only three hits and notching a NLCS-record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a four-run first inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves by hitting .500 (8-for-16).

1998 League Championship Series - San Diego 4, Atlanta 2

Atlanta fought back from a three-games-to-none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in six games. The Braves entered the bottom of ninth of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first two games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 in the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a three-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a three-run lead into the bottom of the ninth, but a two-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of the series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0, with all runs crossing the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field, with Padres hurlers holding the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames.

1999 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, New York 2

The Braves clinched their fifth NL pennant of the 1990's with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta, concluding a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within four outs of a four-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within three outs of forcing a seventh game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez blasted two-run homers in the bottom of the sixth to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an eighth-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the ninth to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first major league relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the first inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding three-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the eighth, but Olerud's two-out, two-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in major league post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a two-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a two-run homer by Olerud in the first — rally for two runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a five-run first inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a two-run Piazza blast in the seventh off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the eighth on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within three outs of a seventh game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andruw Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its fifth World Series of the 1990's. Eddie Perez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10-for-20) with two homers and five RBI.

2001 League Championship Series - Arizona 4, Atlanta 1

The Braves, appearing in their record 11th NLCS, were unable to solve the Diamondbacks' vaunted one-two tandem of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, as Arizona captured their first pennant in a 4-1 series victory. The Braves managed only three hits in a 2-0 Johnson shutout in the opener at Phoenix, but did salvage a split of the first two road games as Javy Lopez's two-run homer in the seventh snapped a 1-1 tie, with Atlanta going on to an 8-1 win in Game 2. Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 2 K) notched the Braves only win of the series. Schilling turned in a dominating effort in the Diamondbacks' 5-1 victory in Game 3 in Atlanta, limiting Atlanta to four hits in a complete game effort, while striking out 12. The Braves took a 2-0 lead through two innings as they attempted to even the series in Game 4, but three Atlanta errors aided a four-run D-Back third, giving them a lead they never relinquished in an 11-4 win and a commanding three-games-to-one lead in the series. The Braves committed four miscues overall, leading to six unearned Arizona runs. Arizona completed the three-game sweep in Atlanta and advanced to the World Series with a 3-2 triumph in Game 5, with the D-Backs again capitalizing on a Braves error to tally two unearned runs in the fifth inning that proved to be decisive. While not as effective as in his Game 1 shutout, Johnson still held the Braves to two runs over seven innings, giving him a 1.13 ERA in two starts in the series (16.0 IP, 2 ER, 19 K).

Braves In The Division Series

1995 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won 5-4. Rookie Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing 4-3 in the ninth. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two homers and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Greg Maddux, Grissom and Fred McGriff led the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for postseason hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Los Angeles 0

Despite hitting only .180 and being held to 10 runs, the Braves swept the Dodgers in three games, as the staff allowed only three earned runs in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game one in LA saw the Braves continue their tradition of one-run postseason games, as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz earned the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2, Fred McGriff's lead-off HR in the seventh tied the game at 2-2 and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only two unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his second save in two games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. Atlanta completed the sweep as Tom Glavine and Chipper Jones (two-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph.

Jones' blast followed a two-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a four-run fourth inning, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo.

1997 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the second inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with three runs in the fifth and five more in the sixth. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks, including eight issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in Game 3 at Houston, as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating three-hitter, taking a 4-1 decision. Braves starters Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz combined for a 1.87 series ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP).

1998 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves had posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings.

The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth, but Kerry Ligtenberg pitched two scoreless innings and sent the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros and advance to their record eighth straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only one run on seven hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the fifth one-hitter in postseason history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood allowed only a second-inning homer to Ken Caminiti. Eddie Perez plated the go-ahead run with a sixth-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning postseason classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all five runs, courtesy of a three-run, sixth-inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a two-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rocker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rocker strikeout of Ricky Guterrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning. Braves appeared to have the series sewed up thanks to a five-run sixth in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the eighth, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a three-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the ninth again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rocker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

2000 Division Series - St. Louis 3, Atlanta 0

The Cardinals jumped on Braves' starters Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood and cruised to a three-game sweep of the Braves, who had won five straight Division Series entering this one. The Redbirds set the tone for the series in the bottom of the first of Game 1, striking for six runs off Maddux, although a Chipper Jones error accounted for two of those tallies being unearned. Cardinals starter Rick Ankiel's bout of wildness (four walks, five wild pitches) contributed to the Braves' four-run rally in the third inning, narrowing the deficit to 6-4. Four Cardinal relievers held the Braves in check thereafter, however, allowing only a ninth-inning run as St. Louis claimed a 7-5 victory. In Game 2, the Braves scored two runs in the top of the first, but Will Clark's three-run homer in the bottom of the frame quickly erased the Braves' only lead of the series. Tom Glavine was tagged for seven earned runs in 2.1 IP, the second-shortest postseason outing of his career as the Cardinals took a 10-4 decision. The change of venue didn't help the Braves, as Fernando Vina opened Game 3 in Atlanta with a leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood and the Cardinals went on to complete a sweep of the series with a 7-1 victory.

2001 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves, appearing in the Division Series for the seventh straight year, took three in a row from the Astros to advance to their record 11th NLCS. Atlanta's pitching was dominant in the sweep, with the staff compiling a 1.67 ERA. Greg Maddux kept the Astros at bay in hitter-friendly Enron Field in Game 1, only to see Houston maintain a 3-2 lead heading into the eighth inning. Keith Lockhart's leadoff pinch-hit double was followed by a Marcus Giles single to even the score at 3-3, and two batters later, Chipper Jones deposited Astros closer Billy Wagner's first pitch into the left field seats for the decisive three-run homer in an eventual 7-4 win. Tom Glavine starred in Game 2, blanking the Astros over 8.0 innings and making an unearned Braves run in the second inning stand up for a 1-0 win, with John Smoltz recording the save. Braves completed 3 as homers by Paul Bako and Julio Franco provided the Braves three runs over the first three innings, all they would need en route to a 6-2 victory. John Burkett teamed with four relievers to shut down Houston's high-powered offense. Chipper Jones finished the series with a .444 BA, including two homers and five RBI, while Andruw Jones went 6-for-12 with a solo homer.

2002 Division Series - San Francisco 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves took a two-games-to-one lead in their record eighth straight Division Series, only to see the Giants rebound to capture the final two contests and the series. Braves faced an 8-2 deficit in Game 1, and after a three-run rally in the bottom of the seventh, went on to bring the tying run to the plate with two men aboard and no outs in the ninth. Giants closer Robb Nen, however, squelched the uprising by retiring Julio Franco on a liner to right and inducing a game-ending double play from Gary Sheffield. In Game 2, back-to-back homers by Javy Lopez and Vinny Castilla sparked a three-run second inning, and Kevin Millwood combined with three relievers to make the lead stand up for a 7-3 Braves win, evening the NLDS at a game apiece. The series moved to San Francisco for Game 3, in which the Braves snapped a 1-1 tie with a five-run sixth, courtesy of a bases-loaded single by Vinny Castilla, and a three-run homer on the next pitch by Keith Lockhart en route to a 10-2 win. Needing one more win to clinch the series, the Braves sent Tom Glavine to the mound in Game 4, but the Giants tagged Glavine for the second time in the series, with the Giants sending the series to a fifth and final game in Atlanta. A second-inning solo homer by former Brave Reggie Sanders and a fourth-inning blast by Barry Bonds proved to be decisive, as Russ Ortiz and four Giants relievers stymied the Braves offense in a 3-1 clincher. Atlanta put runners on first and third in the bottom of the ninth with no outs against Nen, but saw him escape by fanning Sheffield and inducing Chipper Jones to hit into a game-ending double play.

2003 Division Series - Chicago 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves, in their ninth straight Division Series, matched up with the Chicago Cubs in a back-and-forth five-game series that ended with the Cubs taking Game 5 at Turner Field to send them to the NLCS. Chicago's pitching tandem of Kerry Wood and Mark Prior were the story. In Game 1, Wood took over. In addition to a dominating performance on the mound, Wood broke the game open with his two-run sixth-inning double to lead the Cubs to a 4-2 win in front of 52,043 in Atlanta. Russ Ortiz struggled, especially in the sixth when Moises Alou, Aramis Ramirez and Eric Karros led off with three straight singles. Robert Fick then bobbled a potential double play ball off the bat of Paul Bako, allowing Alou to score and setting the stage for Wood. The Braves scored first in the third inning on a Marcus Giles two-out homer and in the eighth on a Chipper Jones' ground out. The Braves rebounded to take Game 2, 5-3, on Mark DeRosa's eighth-inning two-out, two-run double off Dave Veres after John Smoltz allowed a rare run in the top of the inning that tied the game at 3-3. DeRosa was in the lineup after Giles suffered a severely bruised left quadriceps in Game 1. Giles still contributed when he limped off the bench and delivered a pinch-hit, two-out single in the sixth inning that scored Javy Lopez and gave the Braves a 3-2 lead after they had fallen behind, 2-0, in the top of the first. After walking the first two batters of the game and giving up a two-run Sammy Sosa double off the top of the center-field wall, Atlanta starter Mike Hampton battled out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam by striking out three straight Cubs to end the inning. He fanned all three batters in the second inning to match a postseason record of six consecutive strikeouts. Carlos Zambrano started for Chicago and allowed 11 hits, all singles, including a two-run single to Andruw Jones in the fourth inning that tied the score at 2-2. As the teams moved to an electric Wrigley Field for Game 3, the Cubs once again took the series lead with a 3-1 victory. Mark Prior battled in a classic pitchers' duel with Greg Maddux. The only Chicago runs came on a Randall Simon two-out, first-inning single that scored Kenny Lofton and Mark Grudzielanek. The Braves' only run came on a Giles sacrifice fly scoring Mark DeRosa in the eighth inning. Game 4 was the first true glimpse of the Braves offense that was on display most of the regular season. Chipper Jones hit two-run homers from each side of the plate as part of Atlanta's 12-hit attack. It was Chipper's first two-homer playoff game since his postseason debut in Game 1 of the 1995 Division Series. The first of Chipper's two home runs came from the left side off Chicago starter Matt Clement in the fifth inning. The second came in the eighth inning off lefty Mark Guthrie, giving Atlanta a 6-2 lead. Ortiz, coming off three days of rest, held the Cubs to two earned runs on seven hits over five innings. Eric Karros was the hitting star for the Cubs, launching a two solo home runs, one in the sixth inning and one in the eighth inning. Sosa almost tied the game in the bottom of the ninth, but his drive off John Smoltz fell into Andruw Jones' glove on the warning track. Game 5 showed just why the Cubs would be moving on. For the second time in the series, Wood turned in a dominating performance (8.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K) in shutting down the Braves for a 5-1 Chicago clincher in front of 53,775 fans at Turner Field. During the NLDS, Wood allowed just seven hits over 14.1 IP against the NL's best regular-season offense. The lone Atlanta run came on a controversial play in the sixth inning. Rafael Furcal raced home from second base on a ball hit by Sheffield, who returned after missing Game 4 with a bruised hand suffered in Game 3, that appeared to be caught by a sliding Kenny Lofton in center field. It was ruled a hit. Hampton, pitching on three days of rest, endured a 30-pitch first inning, allowing just one run on a Moises Alou broken-bat RBI single. Alex Gonzalez led off the second inning with a homer to center and Aramis Ramirez hit a two-run home run in the sixth inning to give Wood all the support he would need.

2004 Division Series - Houston 3, Atlanta 2

In their record 10th straight Division Series, the Braves met up with the Houston Astros for the fourth time in the opening round but for the first time failed to take the series. The series was filled with big hits and key pitching, but in the end Houston's big bats proved to be too much. Game 1 saw the Astros pound out four home runs, leading to a four-run third inning and a three-run fifth inning in a 9-3 win. The run support was more than needed for Roger Clemens. The Braves had chances to break the game open early against Clemens, but he escaped jams in each of the first four innings. Jaret Wright started for Atlanta and allowed a career-high three homers in 4.1 innings of work. Andruw Jones provided a highlight with his eighth career postseason home run off Clemens in the fifth inning. The Braves evened the series in dramatic fashion, taking Game 2, 4-2. Trailing 2-0 entering the seventh inning the Braves scored on a Rafael Furcal single in the seventh and added one in the eighth on Adam LaRoche's double to tie the game. John Smoltz went 3.0 strong innings starting in the eighth, just the second time as a reliever he had gone that many innings. He also added a single in the ninth-- his 12th career postseason hit, a record for pitchers. The game remained tied 2-2 until the bottom of the 11th inning when Rafael Furcal hit a game-winning, two-run game-winning homer off Dan Miceli to give Atlanta a 4-2 win. Roy Oswalt started four Houston, allowing just one earned run on eight hits over 6.1 IP. Mike Hampton started for the Braves and gave up just two earned runs on four hits before leaving in the seventh inning with tightness in his left forearm. The Braves bullpen combined to go 4.2 scoreless innings. The series shifted to Houston for Game 3 and saw the Astros go up a game with a 8-5 win. Braves starter John Thomson was forced to leave after four pitches when he left with a re-injured left oblique muscle. Paul Byrd made his first career postseason appearance in relief and allowed four earned runs on seven hits in 4.1 IP, the big blow coming on Carlos Beltran's two-run, third-inning home run. The Astros stretched the lead to 7-2 on Morgan Ensberg's sixth-inning, two-run double off Tom Martin. Brandon Backe allowed two runs over 6.0 IP, his only mistake coming on Johnny Estrada's fourth-inning homer. Andruw Jones hit his second homer of the series, a three-run shot off Russ Springer in the eighth. Game 4 was an example of the season-long resolve the Braves displayed. Facing Roger Clemens (5.0 IP, 2 ER) for the second time in the series, the Braves rallied from a three-run deficit entering the sixth inning to win 6-5. Atlanta jumped out 2-0 in the second on an Andruw Jones RBI single and an Adam LaRoche RBI groundout. The Astros came back with five runs the bottom of that inning, highlighted by a three-run homer by Craig Biggio. The Braves tied the game in the sixth on LaRoche's first career postseason homer, a three-run shot off Chad Qualls. The game turned in to a battle of the bullpens after Russ Ortiz left (3.0 IP, 7 H 5 ER), but the Braves pen took charge. Over the last 6.0 innings, they allowed six hits and no runs. The game-winner came in the top of the ninth inning after Rafael Furcal was hit by a Russ Springer pitch with two outs. Furcal then stole his second base of the day and came in to score on J.D. Drew's RBI single. John Smoltz picked up the win by going the final 2.0 innings and getting Jeff Kent to ground into the Astros third double play of the game to end it in the ninth. The series returned to Atlanta for the deciding Game 5 and the Houston bats certainly showed up. The Astros pounded out 17 hits and scored 12 runs in a 12-3 rout. The game was 3-2 entering the sixth inning, but the Astros added one in the sixth, five in the seventh and three in the eighth to pull away. Roy Oswalt picked up the win on short rest, going 5.0 IP and giving up two earned runs. Houston scored a NLDS-record 36 runs in the series and hit an NLDS-record 11 home runs. Carlos Beltran was the series star hitting .429, but he went 4-for-5 with two home runs and five RBI in Game 5. Jaret Wright got the call for Atlanta but gave up four runs in 5.1 IP. Chipper Jones went 2-for-5, but wound up without an RBI in the series. Rafael Furcal had another strong game with his second homer of the series and two more hits, pushing him to .381 (8-for-21) for the NLDS. Andruw Jones hit .526 (10-for-19) in the series.

Braves Season Highlights

1901-In the first year of so-called "modern" baseball, meaning the American League made its official major league entry, the Boston team finished fifth. They were led by Kid Nichols, who won 20 games as a pitcher and also played outfield and first base.

1902-Vic Willis and Togie Pittinger each won 27 games, but the club finished third.

1912-The team acquires the nickname "Braves" for the first time at the suggestion of Johnny Montgomery Ward. Before that, the team had been known as the Doves because of its owners, the Dovey brothers. It was also known as the Beaneaters and the Red Caps.

1914-The Braves completed their miracle finish by coming from last on July 18 to win the N.L. pennant. They won 34 of 44 games in their drive to the top and finished an astonishing 10.5 games in front of the second place Giants. The Braves then swept four from heavily favored Philadelphia to win the World Series. Johnny Evers won the MVP award.

1928-Rogers Hornsby, playing for his third team in three years, hit .387 for the Braves and easily won the N.L. batting title.

1935-Babe Ruth finished his career in a Braves uniform. Ruth homered in his first N.L. at-bat, off Carl Hubbell, but batted only .181 and, after seven more homers for a career total of 714, removed himself from the lineup in June and officially retired as a player.

1936-The "Braves" name was changed to the Bees as a result of a fan poll. Five years later the club read-opted the nickname of the Braves.

1938-Casey Stengel managed his first of six Braves teams.

1947-Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn each won 21 games for the third-place Braves. The team exceeded one million in attendance (1,277,361) for the first time. Bob Elliott won MVP.

1948-This is the year that produced the phrase "Spahn and Sain and two days of rain" as Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain combined for 39 wins. Sain had a league-high 24 as the Braves won the pennant but lost to Cleveland in the World Series. Al Dark batted .322 to lead the Braves in the regular season while winning the Rookie of the Year award.

1950-Center fielder Sam Jethroe won the N.L. Rookie of the Year award.

1952-Eddie Mathews became the first rookie in major league history to hit three home runs in a game, accomplishing it on September 27.

1953-The Braves played their first season in Milwaukee, attracting a National League-record 1,826,297 fans, and finished second. Eddie Mathews won the home run title with 47, and Warren Spahn led the league in pitching victories with 23.

1954-Bobby Thomson suffered a broken ankle in spring training and forced the Braves to try a young infielder by the name of Hank Aaron in the outfield. Aaron batted .280 with 13 homers as the Braves finished third.

1956-Hank Aaron won the batting title with a .328 average, but the Braves lost the pennant to the Dodgers on the final day of the season.

1957-The Braves won the pennant and World Series. Hank Aaron was the league MVP, leading the N.L. in homers and RBI, but it was late-season call-ups Wes Covington and Bob "Hurricane" Hazle who sparked the Braves. Replacing injured players, Covington hit 21 homers, and Hazle batted .403 down the stretch. Aaron batted .393 and Lew Burdette won three games as the Braves beat the Yankees in the Series. Spahn won the Cy Young Award.

1958-In the year the Dodgers and Giants went West, the pennant stayed in Milwaukee. Mathews and Aaron combined for 61 homers, Spahn and Burdette for 42 pitching victories to lead the way. However, the Yankees won the World Series, four games to three.

1959-It required a post-season playoff for the Los Angeles Dodgers to supplant the Braves as N.L. champs. Mathews led the league in homers with 46, Aaron in hitting with a .355 average. Burdette and Spahn won 21 games each. This also was the year Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix pitched 12 perfect innings against the Braves only to lose the game on a homer by Joe Adcock in the 13th.

1960-Aaron led the league in RBI with 126 and Spahn in victories with 21, but the Braves finished second to Pittsburgh.

1961-Spahn again led the league in wins with 21, but the Braves fell to fourth place in the standings.

1963-Aaron just missed the triple crown, leading the league in homers with 44 and RBI with 130. Tommy Davis of the Dodgers won the batting title with a .326 average to Aaron's .319.

1964-The Braves finished fifth in spite of having five players hit 20 homers or more; Aaron (24), Mathews (23), Rico Carty (22), Denis Menke (20) and Joe Torre (20).

1965-The Braves' move to Atlanta was halted by a court order, forcing a lame duck season in Milwaukee. The Braves led the league with 196 homers.

1966-The Braves and Pirates debuted Major League Baseball's first season in Atlanta on April 12, with Pittsburgh winning, 3-2, in 13 innings. Atlanta was fifth in its initial season, but Aaron hit 44 homers and had 127 RBI to lead the league in those departments.

1967-Aaron hit 39 homers to again lead the league, but the Braves fell to 7th in the league standings.

1968-In the year of the pitcher, Aaron still managed 29 homers, and the Braves climbed to fifth in the league standings.

1969-The Braves marked the first year of division play by winning the West. Phil Niekro won 23 games, while Aaron slugged 44 homers and knocked in 97 runs. However, the Braves lost to the Miracle Mets in the playoffs, three games to none.

1970-Rico Carty won the batting title with a .366 average, and Hank Aaron, in addition to collecting 38 homers, realized a milestone by getting his 3,000th career hit. But the Braves dropped to fifth in the N.L. West.

1971-Aaron hit his 600th career homer, this one in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium off the Giants' Gaylord Perry. After hitting an Atlanta rookie record 33 homers, Earl Williams won BBWAA Rookie-of-the-Year honors.

1972-Manager Luman Harris was replaced during the season by future Hall of Fame third baseman Eddie Mathews. The Braves hosted the All-Star Game in Atlanta for the first time.

1973-The Braves produced three hitters who belted 40 or more home runs, Dave Johnson (43), Darrell Evans (41) and Hank Aaron (40). Aaron climbed to within one homer of tying Babe Ruth for the all-time career record of 714, while Johnson hit 42 of his as a second baseman, tying Rogers Hornsby for the Major League record for most homers in a season by a second baseman. Phil Niekro no-hit the Padres, winning 9-0. Lack of pitching dropped the Braves into fifth place in the standings.

1974-Hank Aaron tied Babe Ruth the first time he swung the bat, connecting on April 4, off Cincinnati's Jack Billingham. Four days later he broke the record with No. 715 against Dodgers' lefty Al Downing. Ralph Garr led the league in hitting with a .353 average, and Buzz Capra was the ERA leader with his 2.28 mark.

1975-The season was comparatively uneventful, but in January of the off-season it became official that television magnate Ted Turner purchased the club.

1976-The Braves shook the baseball world by signing pitcher Andy Messersmith, who during the off-season won his free agency in court.

1977-Ted Turner decided to become team manager during a 17-game losing streak. He lost to Pittsburgh, 2-1 at Three Rivers Stadium. Turner's tenure in the dugout lasted only one game as Commissioner Bowie Kuhn banished him back upstairs.

1978-Larry McWilliams and Gene Garber stopped Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games. Bob Horner, the nation's No. 1 draft choice, signed with the Braves and made the jump from the Arizona State campus to the majors and won the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1979-Phil Niekro achieved his 200th career victory by beating the Pirates at Pittsburgh. Niekro won 21 games. Tragically, Director of Player Personnel Bill Lucas, who functioned as the Braves' general manager, died from a brain hemorrhage at age 43 on May 5th.

1980-Manager Bobby Cox moved Dale Murphy to the outfield, and he responded with 33 HRs and 89 RBI.

1981-A players' strike spoiled the season, costing the Major Leagues a total of 713 games.

1982-Dale Murphy, winning the first of two consecutive MVP awards, paced the Braves to a West Division title by hitting 36 homers and knocking in 109 runs. The Braves set a Major League record at the time by winning their first 13 games of the year. However, they lost to the Cardinals in the League Championship Series. Former Braves star Hank Aaron was elected to the Hall of Fame.

1983-Murphy won the MVP award again, but the Braves finished second, three games back. They attracted an Atlanta-record 2,119,935 fans.

1984-Murphy hit 36 homers for the third straight year to tie Mike Schmidt for the league lead.

1985-Rick Mahler reeled off victories in his first seven starts and Dale Murphy enjoyed another banner season with 37 homers, but the club finished fifth in the N.L. West.

1986-Dale Murphy's consecutive-game streak came to an end July 9th at 740 games. Bob Horner hit four homers in an 11-8 loss to Montreal, July 6.

1987-Though the team finished with a 69-92 record, the Braves posted their best offensive numbers in 14 seasons, paced by Dale Murphy's .295 average, 105 RBI and career-high 44 homers.

1988-Russ Nixon took over as manager of the Braves May 23 as the club struggled to a 12-27 record under Chuck Tanner. First baseman Gerald Perry finished with a .300 batting average (5th in N.L.) and a team-high 29 stolen bases.

1989-The Braves finished at 63-97, a nine-game improvement over the previous season. Lonnie Smith shook off the effects of an ankle injury to hit .315 (third in the N.L.) with career highs in HR (21) and RBI (79). His performance earned him league Comeback-Player-of-the-Year honors.

1990-The Braves created shock waves August 4 when they traded Dale Murphy, one of the most respected athletes in Atlanta history, to the Philadelphia Phillies for Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher and Victor Rosario. The move enabled David Justice to return to right field and he responded with 20 home runs and 50 RBI over the last two months. Justice wound up hitting .282 with 28 homers and 78 RBI, enough to earn him Rookie-of-the-Year accolades.

1991-The Braves made history by becoming the first team ever to reach the World Series just one season after having baseball's worst record. Although the team stumbled into the All-Star break 9.5 games behind the first-place Dodgers, they were able to slice seven games off the lead in the first 12 days after the break. What followed was a thrilling stretch drive during which the Braves and Dodgers were never separated by more than 2.5 games after August 10. Among many clutch performances were the NL's first-ever combined no-hitter by Kent Mercker, Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena on September 11 vs. San Diego and David

Justice's game-winning, two-run homer off Rob Dibble on October 1, capping a comeback from a 6-0, first-inning deficit. The Braves finally clinched the division title on October 5, after an eight-game winning streak, the first six coming on the road, to set Atlanta records of 94 wins (including a 55-28 mark in the second half) and 2,140,217 in attendance. Steve Avery was the MVP of the NLCS after tossing a record 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings to lead the Braves to a seven-game triumph. Mark Lemke then turned the World Series into a personal showcase by hitting .417 and helping push the Twins all the way to Game 7, a heartbreaking, 1-0 loss in 10 innings. Tom Glavine won the Cy Young Award; Terry Pendleton won the batting title and was named N.L. MVP; Bobby Cox became the BBWAA and AP N.L. Manager of the Year; Schuerholz earned UPI N.L. Executive-of-the-Year honors; and Baseball America honored Atlanta as the Organization-of-the-Year.

1992-Francisco Cabrera's 9th-inning, two-out, two-run, pinch-hit single and Sid Bream's photo finish slide at home plate gave Atlanta a stunning 3-2 triumph over the Pirates and sent the Braves to their second consecutive World Series. The Braves became the first NL team to win back-to-back pennants since the 1977-78 Dodgers, while setting a new franchise record with a major league-leading 98 victories. On May 27, the Braves resided in last place with a 20-27 mark, 7.0 games behind front-running San Francisco. The team then proceeded to rip off 21 wins in 24 games en route to finishing the season with an amazing 78-37 (.678) run over the duration of the campaign. Included in this blitz was a 13-game winning streak from July 8-25, which tied the franchise record set in 1982. The Braves finally moved into first place July 22, then were tied for the top spot on two occasions before gaining the lead for good on August 2. The Braves led the league in ERA (3.14) for the first time since 1958. For the second straight year, Tom Glavine won 20 games, including a 13-game winning streak, which established a modern day Braves' record. John Smoltz won a career-high 15 games, and became the first Braves' hurler to lead the NL in strikeouts (215) since Phil Niekro in 1977. Pendleton produced another outstanding season, collecting a career-high 105 RBI while hitting .311. His 39 doubles set an Atlanta record and his 199 hits were tied for first in the loop. Atlanta then met Toronto in the first International World Series, with the Blue Jays prevailing in six games. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 with five stolen bases. Nonetheless, the Braves repeated as league champions for the first time since 1957-58.

1993-After one of the most pulsating stretch runs in baseball history, the Braves became the first team to win the N.L. West for three consecutive years when they captured the division over the Giants on the season's final day. The Braves set a franchise record with 104 victories, leading the majors in wins for the second straight season. Atlanta played 54-19 ball (.740) after the All-Star break, the third-best second half in major league history and overcame a 10-game deficit as of July 22. The surge coincided with the July acquisition of Fred McGriff from San Diego, with the Braves going 51-17 (.750) after McGriff joined the lineup. McGriff's first game as a Brave on July 20 will always be remembered in Atlanta as the night of the pre-game press box fire at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium; McGriff's homer in the contest ignited the Braves from a 5-0 deficit to an 8-5 win over the Cardinals. McGriff (37, 101) joined David Justice (40, 120) and Ron Gant (36, 117) to give the Braves the first trio of 100+ RBI men in the N.L. since the Braves' 1970 lineup of Aaron, Cepeda and Carty. The Braves led the league in homers (168) and ERA (3.14) for the second straight season, the first team to do so in consecutive years since the 1977-78 Dodgers. Atlanta's "Fab Four" starting rotation lived up to expectations, with Greg Maddux winning his second consecutive Cy Young Award after posting a 20-10 mark with a 2.36 ERA. Tom Glavine (22-6, 3.20 ERA) became the first N.L. pitcher to win 20+ games for three straight years since Ferguson Jenkins hurled six consecutive 20+ win seasons from 1967-72. Steve Avery (18-6, 2.94 ERA) matched his career-high in victories, and John Smoltz (15-11, 3.62 ERA) gave the Braves four 15-game winners for the first time this century. Jeff Blauser (.305) became the first Brave shortstop to hit over .300 since Alvin Dark in 1948 and set a franchise mark for runs scored (110) by a shortstop. Terry Pendleton recovered from a slow start to knock in 84 runs, while Mike Stanton (27 saves), Rookie-of-the-Year runner-up Greg McMichael (2-3, 2.06 ERA, 19 saves) and Steve Bedrosian (1.63 ERA) led the relief corps. The team drew a franchise-record 3,884,720.

1994-The Braves opened the campaign in the newly aligned National League attempting to capture their fourth straight division crown in their new home, the N.L. East. The Braves began the season in record fashion, winning their first seven games, all on the road. It was the second best start in Atlanta history and a modern N.L. record for consecutive wins on a season-opening road trip. Kent Mercker no-hit the Dodgers, 6-0, April 8 in Los Angeles. The Braves equalled their Atlanta-best 13-1 start, which included tying a team record 10 straight road wins. The Braves set an Atlanta record for runs scored in their 19-5 victory at Chicago April 15. In that game Atlanta hit back-to-back-to-back homers and duplicated the accomplishment three days later to become the first team in major league history to achieve the feat twice within that short a time frame. Bobby Cox became the 41st manager in major league history to win at least 1,000 games with a 6-5 victory June 17 vs. Cincinnati. Fred McGriff, David Justice and Greg Maddux represented Atlanta in the All-Star game in Pittsburgh. Maddux started for the National League, and McGriff captured the MVP award after he hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning to tie the game at 7-7. (The NL won in 10 innings, 8-7.) McGriff hit his 30th homer August 5 at Cincinnati to become the ninth player in major league history to hit at least 30 home runs in seven or more straight seasons. He led the team in homers (34), batting average (.318), RBI (94), runs scored (81) and 2B (25). Maddux also reached the record books by becoming the first player in major league history to win three straight Cy Young Awards. Maddux finished 16-6, tied for the lead league in wins, and led the league in ERA (1.56), complete games (10), innings pitched (202.0) and opponents batting average against (.207). For the third consecutive season, the Braves led the N.L. in homers with 137. They also finished second in the league with a 3.57 ERA. The Braves were second in the N.L. East, 6.0 games behind Montreal, when the players went on strike after the games of August 11, cancelling the playoffs and World Series for the first time since 1904.

1995-The Braves won their first World Series in 38 years. The world championship was the first for the city of Atlanta in a major professional sport, while the Braves also entered the record books as the first franchise to win the World Series in three different cities. Atlanta overcame a 23-20 start (3rd place, 5.0 GB) to post a 67-34 (.663) mark from June 14 through the remainder of the regular season, running away with the N.L. East title by 21.0 games. By winning the division, the Braves became the first N.L. team to finish first in four consecutive completed seasons since the 1921-24 New York Giants.

Atlanta's pitching lived up to expectations, leading the majors with a 3.44 ERA; the Braves' staff became the first to lead the majors in ERA for three straight completed seasons since the Baltimore Orioles topped the majors from 1969 through 1972. Greg Maddux claimed his unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young Award, going 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA, becoming the first starting pitcher since Walter Johnson in 1918-19 to record an ERA of less than 1.70 in two consecutive seasons. He ended the season with a major league record 18-game winning streak on the road (including an 0.99 ERA) dating back to July, '94. Mark Wohlers emerged as the dominant closer the Braves had sought throughout the '90's, saving 25 games, including 21 straight chances between May 15 and September 3. Fred McGriff (27), David Justice (24), Ryan Klesko (23) and Rookie of the Year runnerup Chipper Jones (23) became the first Braves foursome to hit over 20 homers in a season since 1973, and Javy Lopez matched Joe Torre's 1966 record for the best average by an Atlanta catcher with a .315 mark. Last at-bat wins were the trademark of the '95 Braves, with Atlanta winning an N.L.-best 25 games in this fashion, including 18 after July 3. The Braves led the majors with 31 one-run victories, and went on to notch another seven victories in the post-season by one run and/or in their last at-bat. Atlanta beat the Rockies three games to one in the Division Series, and routed the Reds in the first-ever four-game sweep of an NLCS, before winning the world title with a six-game triumph over the Indians, climaxed by Series MVP Tom Glavine's one-hitter over eight innings and David Justice's decisive sixth-inning homer in the 1-0 finale.

1996-The Braves made their fourth trip to the World Series out of the last five played, but were unable to defend their world title as the Yankees took the championship in six games. In their final season at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, the Braves took over first place for good on May 19, en route to winning the NL East by 8.0 games. The division crown was Atlanta's fifth straight, marking the first time a National League team has registered five straight first-place finishes. Braves bowed out of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium by setting a franchise mark with 56 home wins, topping the old record of 51, set three times previously. Atlanta's .270 team BA was its best since hitting .272 in 1983, while the club's 197 homers were third-most in Atlanta history, trailing only the teams of 1966 (207) and 1973 (206). The pitching staff set a major league record by fanning 1,245 batters, breaking the Astros' major league mark of 1,221 set in 1969; the staff also allowed the fewest walks in the majors, issuing only 451 free passes. By going 12-15 in September, team ended a stretch of playing .500+ ball for 21 straight months since April, 1993. John Smoltz continued the Braves' Cy Young reign, as the righthander fashioned a breakthrough season, going 24-8 with a 2.94 ERA. He set modern day franchise records with his 276 strikeouts and a 14-game winning streak, and established an Atlanta mark with his 24 victories. Smoltz lost his opening start, then went 14-0 with a 1.83 ERA over his next 15 outings. Greg Maddux didn't win a fifth straight Cy Young Award, but went 15-11 with a 2.72 ERA, while Tom Glavine went 15-10 with a 2.98 ERA and won his 3rd Silver Slugger Award. Mark Wohlers shattered Gene Garber's 1982 franchise record of 30 saves by notching 39 of his own in 44 opportunities, and also recorded 100 strikeouts in 77.1 IP. Stellar years at the plate were enjoyed by Chipper Jones (30-110-.309), Fred McGriff (28-107-.295), Ryan Klesko (34-93-.282) and Marquis Grissom (23-74-.308). Grissom won his 4th consecutive Gold Glove Award and collected a career high 207 hits, becoming the first Brave to reach the 200 mark since Ralph Garr had 214 in 1974. Grissom set a franchise record with 671 AB, and compiled a 28-game hitting streak (49 x 127, .386) July 25-Aug. 24; it was the longest streak by a Brave since Rowland Office hit in 29 straight in 1976, and the third-longest in Atlanta history. On June 2 at Cincinnati he also became the first Brave to complete a straight steal of home since Ed Miller performed the feat in 1979. Other offensive highlights included Jeff Blauser's 7-RBI game at Philadelphia May 11, the first by a Brave since Orlando Cepeda in 1970, Jermaine Dye's homer in his first major league AB May 17 vs. the Reds (the first debut HR by a Brave since Chuck Tanner in 1955), and a 18-1 rout of the Cubs May 20, providing the Braves' largest margin of victory in a contest since Boston beat St. Louis, 20-3, August 25, 1936. The 1996 season also saw the debut of 19-year-old phenom Andruw Jones on Aug. 15, who made the jump from A-ball to the majors in under two months. At 19 years, 3 months and 23 days, he became the fourth-youngest player in Atlanta history, and in his second game, the next day, he socked his first M.L. homer, becoming the youngest National Leaguer to go deep since Houston's Larry Dierker in 1965. Atlanta took the final three contests by scores of 14-0, 3-1, and 15-0. By winning the first two World Series games in Yankee Stadium, the Braves appeared on their way to repeating as world champions, but saw New York capture the final four games and the title. The Braves organization was recognized by Baseball America as the Organization of the Year for 1996, the second time since 1991.

1997-The Braves won a major league high 101 games and an unprecedented sixth straight division title, but failed to reach the World Series for the first time since 1993 when the Marlins won the NLCS, four games to two. The six consecutive first-place finishes eclipsed the old mark of five straight set by the New York Yankees (1949-53) and the Oakland A's (1971-75). In their inaugural season at Turner Field, the Braves won 12 of their first 13 home games, and retained sole possession of first place from April 14 through the remainder of the season. The Braves set a major league record for April with 19 victories, breaking the old mark of 18, set six times previously. The team clinched the N.L. East on September 22, finishing with a 9.0 game margin over Florida. Atlanta's pitching once again proved dominant, leading the majors with a 3.18 ERA and 17 shutouts. Fourth starter Denny Neagle turned in the National League's only 20-victory campaign, going 20-5 with a 2.97 ERA, while Greg Maddux (19-4, 2.20) narrowly missed the 20-win circle. John Smoltz (15-12, 3.02) led the National League with 256.0 innings pitched, and became the first pitcher in franchise history to notch at least 200 strikeouts in four seasons. Tom Glavine (14-7, 2.96 ERA) was one of four Braves starters to rank in the top 10 in the N.L. in ERA. Glavine was named the National League's Pitcher of the Month for April after going 4-0 with a 1.64 ERA, while becoming the first pitcher to record two career shutouts at Colorado's Coors Field. Mark Wohlers became the first Braves pitcher to notch consecutive 30+save seasons, while fanning 92 in 69.1 innings pitched. On offense, the Braves reached the .270 mark for the second straight year, a feat they hadn't accomplished since 1947-48. Most noteworthy were the 12 grand slams hit by the squad, setting a major league record, featuring 3 by Chipper Jones in a span of 13 contests, setting the NL record for 3 slams in the fewest team games. C.Jones posted another solid season (21-111-.295), with 20 stolen bases, and became the first Braves third baseman to drive in 100+ runs in consecutive seasons since Eddie Mathews in 1959-60. Ryan Klesko led the squad with 24 homers, followed by Javy Lopez (23), Fred McGriff (22), and C.Jones (21). Jeff Blauser added 17 homers, while batting .308. The offense exploded for 9 run-innings twice in 12 games (June 22 and July 3), after not having performed the feat since 1989. Grand slams by Ryan Klesko and Tim Spehr on July 14 vs. the Phillies marked only the fifth occasion in franchise history that the Braves hit 2 slams in a contest. Quartet of Maddux-Neagle-Glavine-Smoltz excelled in August, not allowing more than 3 ER in any of their final 19 starts of the month. Neagle joined the 20-game winners circle for the first time in his career with a 4-0 combined shutout at San Diego September 7. Maddux ended the season with a sensational ratio of 19 wins to 20 walks, with 6 of those being intentional. Rafael Belliard made headlines when he belted his first homer in more than 10 years, a 2-run blast Sept. 26 at New York. In the post-season, Atlanta swept 3 games from Houston in the Division Series, giving the Braves a 9-1 mark in Division Series competition. Competing in a record sixth straight National League Championship Series, the Braves lost to the Marlins in 6 games, marking the first time a team other than Atlanta represented the National League in the World Series since 1993.

1998-The Braves set a franchise record with 106 victories, and extended their own records by winning a seventh straight division title and appearing in a seventh consecutive LCS, but fell short of the World Series once again as the Padres took the NLCS, four games to two. Atlanta's 106 victories were tied for the sixth most in NL history, as the team clicked on all cylinders throughout the season, evidenced by a franchise record 215 homers, a major league leading 3.25 ERA, and an NL-high and franchise-record .985 fielding percentage. The offense tied a major league record by homering in 25 straight games April 18-May 13 and set a post-1900 record with 826 runs, while the Braves became only the third franchise in major league history to produce four 30-homer players in one season (joining 1977 and 1997 Dodgers, and 1995-97 Colorado Rockies). Andres Galarraga dispelled a widely held theory that his recent home run totals with the Rockies were inflated by playing 81 games at Coors Field by belting 44 homers, an increase of six over his 1997 total. Chipper Jones set career highs with 34 homers, a .313 BA, and 123 runs scored and became the first Brave to knock in 100+ RBI for three straight seasons since Dale Murphy did it four years in a row 1982-85. Javy Lopez set career highs with 34 homers and 106 RBI, while leading all major league catchers with a .995 fielding percentage. His 34 longballs and 106 RBI set Braves franchise records for a catcher (Joe Torre hit 36 homers in 1966, but only 31 as a catcher, while nearly half of Torre's 109 RBI in 1964 came as a first baseman). Andruw Jones rebounded from a slow start (.204 through April) to become the sixth-youngest player in major league history to reach the 30-homer mark, ending the campaign with 31 homers, 90 RBI and 27 stolen bases; he also became the youngest 20-20 player in major league history, a record established by the Astros' Cesar Cedeño in 1972, and captured his first Gold Glove in center field. The pitching staff, in addition to leading the majors in ERA, also paced both leagues with 24 complete games, 23 shutouts, and 1,232 strikeouts, the second-highest total in major league history, behind only the '96 Braves staff (1,245). Tom Glavine produced the staff's sixth Cy Young Award since 1991 by going 20-6 with a career-low 2.47 ERA, while all five members of the rotation won 16 or more games; the only other team in major league history to perform the feat was the 1902 Pittsburgh Pirates. The rotation as a whole included major league leaders in wins (Glavine's 20 were tied for first), ERA (Greg Maddux at 2.22, his fourth ERA title in six seasons) and winning percentage (John Smoltz went 17-3 for an .850 winning percentage). Two individual milestones attained by Braves pitchers were Dennis Martinez becoming the winningest Latin American pitcher in major league history when he registered his 244th career victory in a 7-5 decision at San Francisco August 9, and Maddux notching his 200th career win in an

8-4 triumph over the Giants August 18. Kerry Ligtenberg took over the closer's role in the bullpen and went 30-for-34 in save opportunities, becoming the first NL rookie since Cards' Todd Worrell in 1986 to post 30 saves in a campaign. The defense led the loop in fielding for the first time since 1969, committing a league-low 91 errors. After winning the NL East by 18.0 games over the Mets, the Braves beat the Cubs in three games for their third straight Division Series sweep. They lost the NLCS in six games to the Padres.

1999-The Braves overcame the loss of several key players and captured their fifth National League pennant of the 1990's, before falling to the Yankees in the World Series. At the outset of spring training, the Braves were stunned to hear that Andres Galarraga would be lost for the season because of non-Hodgkins lymphoma in a bone in his lower back, and also saw closer Kerry Ligtenberg go down with a season-ending medial collateral ligament tear in his right elbow. Despite these losses and season-ending injuries to Javy Lopez, Odalis Perez and Rudy Seanez during the summer, Braves managed to win 103 games and claim their unprecedented eighth straight division title. The team blew open a tight race with the Mets by taking 5 of 6 games from the New Yorkers in late September, highlighted by Chipper Jones' 4-HR barrage in a 3-game sweep in Atlanta, which served as his springboard to the MVP Award. C. Jones led the Braves to a franchise-record 840 runs scored, while setting a National League record for homers by a switch-hitter with 45 longballs, and also became the first player in major league history to hit at least .300, have at least 100 runs, 100 RBI, 40 HR, 40 doubles, 100 walks, and 20 steals. Under the tutelage of Don Baylor, he clubbed 15 HR in 142 AB (every 9.5 AB) against lefthanders, after having only 12 HR in 678 lifetime AB vs. lefties (every 56.5 AB) entering the campaign. New acquisition Brian Jordan drove in a career-high 115 runs, despite being hindered by a painful right hand after being plunked June 22. Gerald Williams provided punch in the leadoff spot with 17 homers, while Andruw Jones hit 26 HR and became the third Atlanta Brave to play in all 162 games (Felix Millan, 1969; Dale Murphy, 1982-85), in addition to winning his second straight Gold Glove in center field. Lopez, batting .317 when a partial tear of his right ACL in late July sidelined him for the season, was capably replaced for the duration by Eddie Perez (career-high 104 games). Braves pitching, while not as dominant as in seasons past, nevertheless led the majors in ERA for the sixth time in the 1990's at 3.63. Atlanta's Cy Young trio of Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and John Smoltz were amazingly surpassed in performance by fourth starter Kevin Millwood, who went 18-7 with a second-ranked 2.68 ERA, leading the majors with a .202 opponents BA, and placing third in the National League's Cy Young balloting in only his second full season. Greg Maddux went 19-9, Tom Glavine added 14 wins, and John Smoltz battled elbow problems (including two stints on the D.L.) en route to 11 victories. Terry Mulholland proved to be a valuable trading deadline pickup from the Cubs, mixing in 8 relief outings with his 8 starts, and compiled a 2.98 ERA after joining the Braves. Mike Remlinger appeared in a career high 73 games and became an unsung hero, going 10-1 with a 2.37 ERA; his 10 wins were the most by an Atlanta reliever since Cecil Upshaw won 11 in 1971. John Rocker stepped up as the third Braves' closer in as many seasons and recorded 38 saves in 45 opportunities, fourth-best in the NL, and only one behind Mark Wohlers' franchise mark of 39 in 1996. His dominance was exhibited by his 104 strikeouts in only 72.1 IP, while allowing only 47 hits. In the post-season, Braves disposed of Astros in 4 games, then appeared in their record eighth straight LCS, outlasting the Mets in a pulsating 6-game series after being up 3 games to none. Braves made their fifth World Series appearance of the 1990's, and held two eighth-inning leads (in Games One and Three), but failed to preserve them and were swept in four straight by the Yankees.

2000-The Braves claimed their unprecedented ninth straight division title, but saw their streak of eight consecutive appearances in the NLCS come to an end when they were swept in the Division Series by the Cardinals. Despite losing John Smoltz for the season in spring training with a torn right medial collateral ligament, and Quilvio Veras for the second half of the campaign with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee, the Braves still posted 95 wins, becoming only the third team in major league history to record 90+ wins in nine consecutive completed seasons, joining the Yankees (12 straight years, 1947-58) and Cubs (nine straight years, 1904-12). The season was highlighted by a Braves' modern franchise record 15-game winning streak April 16-May 2, the longest streak in the N.L. since the New York Giants won 16 straight games in 1951. The Braves entered the first of two series with the Mets September 18 leading New York by 3.0 games and won the first two contests to assume a commanding 5.0 game lead with 11 to play; Braves reeled a 10-3 stretch from September 13 through their division clincher September 26 at New York. Chipper Jones followed his '99 MVP campaign with another outstanding season, hitting .311 with 36 homers and 111 RBI. His RBI total, besides matching his career high, also enabled him to become only the second third baseman in major league history to notch five straight 100+ RBI seasons, joining the Pirates' Pie Traynor 1927-31. Nineteen-year-old infielder Rafael Furcal made the jump from A ball to the majors in spectacular fashion as he was named the BBWAA's National League Rookie of the Year after batting .294 in 131 games, with an Atlanta rookie record 40 stolen bases. Andres Galarraga made a strong comeback from his bout with cancer that led him to miss all of the 1999 season, hitting 28 homers, collecting 100 RBI while batting .302. Veras was in the midst of an excellent campaign (.309, 25 steals) when he was lost for the season three games into the second half. Andruw Jones made the All-Star team for the first time, won his 3rd straight Gold Glove and turned in a breakthrough year at the plate with career highs in homers (36), RBI (104) and BA (.303), mostly from the second spot in the batting order. He became the 5th-youngest player in history to reach the century mark in career homers, trailing only Mel Ott, Tony Conigliaro, Eddie Mathews and Alex Rodriguez. The Braves' 4.06 ERA was its highest since the 1990 season, but still led the majors for the fourth straight year and for the seventh time in the last nine years. Tom Glavine placed second in N.L. Cy Young balloting after finishing 21-9 with a 3.40 ERA, joining Roger Clemens as the only active pitchers with five 20+ win seasons. Glavine, whose 21 wins led the majors and 241.0 IP set a career high, went 10-2 with a 3.01 ERA after Braves' losses, and became the 96th pitcher in history to reach the 200-win mark, ending the year with 208 victories. Greg Maddux won 19 games for the 4th time in 6 seasons (19-0, 3.00), while reeling off 39.1 consecutive scoreless innings September 2-28, the longest scoreless string in the N.L. since Oral Herschiser's record run of 59.0 consecutive shutout innings in 1988. Maddux, by winning at least 15 games for the 13th straight year, became only the third pitcher in M.L. history to accomplish that feat, joining Cy Young (15 straight years) and Gaylord Perry (13 straight years). John Rocker recorded 24 saves in 27 opportunities while fanning 77 in 53.0 IP. The Braves entered the postseason with a 15-2 record in Division Series play, but subpar outings by Maddux (4.0 IP, 5 ER), Glavine (2.1 IP, 7 ER) and Kevin Millwood (4.2 IP, 4 ER) led to a three-game sweep by the Cardinals.

2001-The Braves became the first team in professional sports to claim a 10th straight division title, outlasting the Phillies in a race that wasn't decided until game number 160. Amazingly, from June 22 through the end of the campaign, the two clubs were never separated by more than 3.5 games. Although the team failed to win at least 90 games for the first time in a completed season since 1990, the Braves managed once again to win the N.L. East by overcoming a rash of injuries, including a season-ending left shoulder dislocation suffered by shortstop Rafael Furcal on July 6. Three quarters of the Braves starting infield that were present at the season's outset were replaced by the beginning of September. Furcal's loss led to the acquisition of shortstop Rey Sanchez from the Royals July 31; first baseman Rico Brogna retired in July, and was replaced by Ken Caminiti, who gave way to Julio Franco in the season's final month; and Quilvio Veras' July 31 release led to the promotion of Marcus Giles. The bullpen also received a makeover, with John Rocker and minor leaguer Troy Cameron being traded to the Indians June 22 in exchange for Steve Karsay and Steve Reed. That duo was later joined by Rudy Seanez, who was reacquired by Atlanta on Aug. 31. On offense, the team dipped in most categories, but Chipper Jones still became the first third baseman in major league history to compile 6 straight 100 RBI years, to go with 38 homers and a career-high .330 BA. Brian Jordan struck 3 of the biggest homers in Braves regular season history over a 6-day span, when he almost single-handedly knocked the defending league champion Mets out of contention. A 2-homer game Sept. 23 at New York (a 2-out shot to draw the Braves to within 1 run, followed by a game-winning blast in the 11th) was followed by a 2-out, ninth-inning grand slam on a 0-2 pitch that capped a 7-run rally and gave the Braves an unlikely 8-5 win on Sept. 29 in Atlanta. Andruw Jones, even in an "off-year," still led the club with 104 RBI to go with 34 homers. Greg Maddux paced the staff with 17 wins, becoming only the second pitcher in M.L. history to win at least 15 games for 14 straight seasons, behind only Cy Young at 15 straight years. He also set a National League record by not issuing a walk for 72.1 IP over 11 starts. John Burkett became one of the biggest surprises in the majors by turning in his best season since 1993, finishing third in the N.L. with a 3.04 ERA, and earning a spot on the N.L. All-Star team. John Smoltz made the transition to the closer's role a successful one, compiling a 1.59 ERA in 31 relief outings, with 10 saves in 11 opportunities. The Braves clinched their 10th straight division title with a 20-3 win over Florida Oct. 5; the 20 runs tied an Atlanta single-game record, while the 10-run first inning marked the first time since 1953 that the Braves had posted 10 runs in the opening frame of a contest. In the National League Division Series, the Braves swept Astros in three games, marking Atlanta's fourth first-round sweep since the 1996 postseason. The Braves split the first two games of the N.L.C.S. at Arizona, but saw the Diamondbacks take three straight games in Atlanta and the N.L. pennant en route to the World Series title.

2002-The Braves extended their unprecedented-in-sports run of division titles to 11 straight, breezing to the N.L. East title by 19.0 games over the Expos. Braves overcame their worst April (12-15) since 1990 by going 60-20 (.750) May 15-August 16 on the strength of many individual and team accomplishments. The staff led the majors in ERA for the ninth time in 12 seasons at 3.13, .41 ahead of the second-ranked Giants' 3.54 ERA, and also finished .98 below the final league average of 4.11. That represented the third-largest disparity between a staff and the league since 1900, bettered only by the 1939 Yankees (1.31 below A.L. average) and the 1997 Braves (1.02 below N.L. average). Also marked the lowest staff ERA since a 3.05 mark in 1974 and the fifth-lowest for the franchise since 1919. The bullpen ended the campaign with a 2.60 ERA, the lowest in the majors and the best in Atlanta history, ahead of the 2.76 mark set by the 1981 relief corps. John Smoltz, in his first full year as a closer, set an N.L. mark with 55 saves in 59 opportunities, breaking the mark formerly held by the Cubs' Randy Myers in 1993 and the Padres' Trevor Hoffman in 1998. Atlanta won the final 49 games Smoltz appeared in, the best streak of that type since the A's won 52 in a row with Dennis Eckersley on the mound in 1992. Smoltz also joined Eck as the only pitchers in history to post seasons of 20+ wins and 50+ saves. The Braves' setup men were nothing short of sensational, as five out of six relievers contributed an ERA below 3.00. Chris Hammond fashioned a remarkable comeback season by posting a 0.95 ERA in 63 games, becoming only the third pitcher since 1900 to record a sub 1.00 ERA (Eckersley, 0.61 in 1990, Giant's Ferdie Schupp, 0.90 in 1916). Another surprise, Darren Holmes, contributed a 1.81 ERA in 55 appearances, while Mike Remlinger's 1.99 ERA in 73 games gave the Braves a third reliever with an ERA below 2.00. Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood paced the starters with 18 wins each, while Greg Maddux went 16-6 with a 2.62 ERA (second in the NL), joining Cy Young as the only other pitcher in history to notch 15 consecutive 15-win seasons, and also claimed his 13th straight Rawlings Gold Glove. Damian Moss, at 12-6, collected the most wins by a Braves' rookie since Craig McMurry won 15 games in 1983. Offensively, the team batted .260 for a second straight year, with Chipper Jones making a smooth transition to left field by driving in 100 runs, becoming just the fifth player in N.L. history to reach the century mark in 7 straight seasons. He teamed with new acquisition Gary Sheffield to belt back-to-back homers in the bottom of the ninth to give the Braves a 7-6 win over the Rockies, the first time in modern franchise history the Braves ended a game with two homers (Sheffield tied game, Jones won it). Andruw Jones paced the squad with 35 homers, while earning his fifth straight Rawlings Gold Glove. He became only the 11th player in N.L. history to homer in 4 consecutive at-bats Sept. 7-10; Bobby Lowe in 1894 was the only other player in franchise history to perform the feat. A. Jones also produced a 3-homer game Sept. 25 at Philadelphia, the first time a Brave had gone deep three times in a game since Jeff Blauser in 1992. Sheffield, slowed by injuries early in the season, rebounded to hit .307 in 135 games with 25 homers, and set an Atlanta record by reaching base safely in 52 straight games May 28-July 27, breaking Dale Murphy's mark of 48, set in 1987. The Braves clinched the N.L. East during an off-day Sept. 9, the third-earliest division clinching by date since division play began in 1969. With 101 wins, the Braves became the first franchise in N.L. history to record seven 100-win seasons, while manager Bobby Cox enhanced his Hall of Fame credentials by becoming the first skipper in the history of the senior circuit to collect five 100-win campaigns. The Braves took a two-games-to-one lead over the Giants in the Division Series, only to see San Francisco rally to capture the last two games, sending the Braves to a first-round loss.

2003-The Braves once again confounded the preseason prognosticators who predicted the loss of Tom Glavine, Kevin Millwood and Damian Moss, as well several key members of bullpen, would lead to the end of the team's consecutive division title run. The Braves put together one of the greatest offensive seasons in franchise history to extend their unprecedented run of first-place finishes to 12 straight, ending up with 101 wins and 10.0 games in front of the Florida Marlins in the NL East. The Braves set franchise records with 907 runs, 235 home runs, 1,608 hits, 2,696 total bases, a .475 slugging percentage and 321 doubles, as they took over sole possession of first place on May 2 and stayed there the rest of the season. Their .284 team batting average, the highest for Braves since Boston hit .292 in 1925, led the NL, as did the team's 907 runs, 1,608 hits, 235 home runs and .475 SLG pct. Braves hitters struck out 933 times, the fewest in the league. The Braves became second team in NL history (the other being the 1965 Milwaukee Braves) to have six players with 20 or more homers (Lopez 43, Sheffield 39, A. Jones 36, Chipper Jones 27, Vinny Castilla 22 and Giles 21). Sheffield (career-high 132), A. Jones (career-high 116), Lopez (career-high 109) and C. Jones (106) gave the Braves four 100-RBI players for first time. The Braves became only second NL team since 1900 to have five players score at least 100 runs (Furcal 130, Sheffield 126, C. Jones 103, Giles 101, A. Jones 101). The Braves became the first NL team to have eight 100-win seasons. Cox joined Joe McCarthy as the only managers in major league history to have six 100-win seasons. The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, named Cox the NL Manager of the Year for the second straight season. Lopez, who set a major league record for home runs by a catcher with 42 (he also hit one as a pinch-hitter), became just the third catcher in history to finish with at least 40 HR (43), 100 RBI (109) and a BA of more than .300 (.328). Hampton became the first player to win both a Rawlings Gold Glove and a Louisville Silver Slugger in the same season. Greg Maddux (16-11) became the first pitcher in major league history to win at least 15 games in 16 consecutive seasons. Chipper Jones became the fourth player in NL history to record eight straight 100+ RBI seasons. Sheffield set an Atlanta record with 132 RBI and Giles set a modern franchise standard with 49 doubles. Newcomer Russ Ortiz led the NL with 21 wins. Smoltz, with 45 saves, joined Eric Gagne as the only pitchers ever to notch 100 saves over two consecutive seasons. The Cubs eliminated the Braves in the NL Division Series, 3-2.

Monthly Highlights: April – Braves play Montreal Expos in San Juan and Javy Lopez, a Puerto Rico native, hits two home runs, including a grand slam, and sets a career high with six RBI in a 14-8 win April 17. May – Braves hit 55 homers, setting a NL record for the month and tying the league mark for any month...Begin month 14-3, giving team a 27-5 stretch April 13-May 18, matching the 1914 Boston Braves for best 32-game record in modern franchise history...In a 15-3 win over Reds May 29, Braves become only second team in major league history to start a game with three consecutive homers (Rafael Furcal, Mark DeRosa, Gary Sheffield). June – Braves go 10-5 in interleague play...John Smoltz's loss June 19 at Philadelphia is his first since May 29, 2002, a span of 84 appearances without a defeat...Lopez has four two-home run games. July – Braves' 61 wins by All-Star break set a franchise record, as does placing seven players on NL All-Star team...Lopez, Sheffield and Marcus Giles are elected as starters; Furcal, Andruw Jones, Russ Ortiz and Smoltz also make the squad...Giles goes 13-for-15 July 27-29, including matching a major league record with four doubles July 27 at Montreal. August – Mike Hampton extends winning streak to nine games Aug. 23 at Colorado, matching NL high in 2003...Will Cunnane had his contract purchased from Richmond, Kent Mercker was reacquired from Reds and Jaret Wright was obtained from Padres...Furcal recorded the 11th unassisted triple play in major league history Aug. 10 at STL. September – Clinched NL East title during off-day Sept. 18 when Marlins lost to Phillies...Rookie Horacio Ramirez went 3-0 with a 2.41 ERA in five starts.

2004-For the 13th consecutive season and 10th straight time in the NL East, the Braves won their division, this time by 10 games over the Philadelphia Phillies. After losing Greg Maddux, Gary Sheffield, Javy Lopez and Vinny Castilla to free agency, many expected Atlanta to fall back to the pack. The big offseason move was the acquisitions of J.D. Drew and Eli Marrero from St. Louis to replace some of the offense. As the injuries began to mount during the early part of the season, the team was six games under .500 and 6.5 behind in the standings on June 23. The turnaround came the final game of a three-game series in Baltimore on June 28 when the Braves erased a 7-0 deficit with a seven-run eighth inning and went on to win 8-7. From June 26 to Sept. 4, the Braves won 47 of 62 games. They took over first place for good on July 23 and ended up with a 96-66 mark. The 2004 first-place finish was the 14th in a row for manager Bobby Cox in seasons in which he has managed from the outset, including his final year in Toronto, 1985. Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, named Cox the NL Manager of the Year for the third straight season. It's the sixth time he's received that honor with the Braves and seventh time overall. No other manager has won the award more than three times since the Sporting News started the balloting in 1936. Cox was also named NL Manager of the Year by the Associated Press for the third time overall and second time with the Braves (1991). Johnny Estrada was named to the AP NL All-Star Team and won his first Silver Slugger Award. Julio Franco's .309 batting average was the highest by a player who opened the year 43 or older (min. 100 AB). Andruw Jones set the Atlanta single-season strikeout mark with 147 Ks. Chipper Jones set a new Atlanta career doubles record with 325. Chris Reitsma appeared in a franchise-record 84 games. John Smoltz became the fifth pitcher in baseball history to post three straight 40-save seasons. The Astros defeated the Braves three-games-to-two in the NLDS.

Monthly Highlights: April – Braves had to play without Rafael Furcal (back) and Chipper Jones (hamstring) for extended stretched, but managed to win five of six meetings against the Florida Marlins to stay in the mix with an 11-10 mark...Johnny Estrada hit .323 and led the Braves and all NL catchers with 18 RBI...Marcus Giles hit a club-best .393, hitting successfully in 20 of the team's 21 games...The attendance at Turner Field was the highest since 2000, averaging 32,525 in nine dates...Julio Franco hit a game-winning, two-out, three-run double in a 13-pitch at-bat off Chicago's Kyle Farnsworth to beat the Cubs 5-2 on April 10. May – In an injury-riddled month that saw Horacio Ramirez (shoulder tendinitis), Adam LaRoche (collarbone) and Marcus Giles (collarbone) go on the disabled list for an extended period of time, the Braves escaped with a 25-25 mark after going 14-15 for the month and leaving them 4.5 games out and in third place...Two games stood out in May, the 18-strikeout performance by Milwaukee's Ben Sheets on May 16 at MIL and Arizona's Randy Johnson throwing a perfect game the next game out on May 18 in Atlanta...Nick Green came up from Richmond to take Giles' place and hit .304 for the month...Estrada hit .357 and J.D. Drew matched Andruw Jones with a team-high seven homers...Franco became the oldest player to hit a PH homer on 5/19 vs. ARL...The team had a 3.15 ERA in May. June – Braves went 8-10 in interleague play...Julio Franco became the 96th player to collect 2,400 hits...Through the first two months, Estrada was hitting .500 (30-for-60) with RISP...Charles Thomas made his ML debut, hitting .368 for the month...Eli Marrero healed up after missing time due to an illness with a .362 month and J.D. Drew added eight homers and 22 RBI to lead the team in both categories...June saw the season "turnaround game" (see above) on June 28 at Baltimore...Franco broke Pete Rose's mark of 25 RBI on 6/26, giving him the most ever by a player 45 years old. He also hit a grand slam on 6/3 vs. PHI to become the oldest player in history to hit a grand slam. July – Braves go 20-6 for the month, winning nine of the first 11...The last time they had a better month was June 2002 (21-5)...Jaret Wright, Russ Ortiz and Mike Hampton combine to go 14-0 with a 1.87 ERA, the first time in the majors since September 1983 (Phillies using starters and relievers), and the first staff to have three starting pitchers with an undefeated month with at least four wins since the New York Yankees, in June 1960 (Jim Coates, Art Ditmer and Bob Turley each went 4-0 as starters, 12-0 total, but Ditmer lost one game in relief...the Braves' trio had a combined ERA of 1.87 during the month, the Yanks' 1960 trio had a 3.11 mark)...Johnny Estrada was named to the NL All-Star team for the first time...Nick Green hit a three-run, walkoff homer in the 12th inning on 7/2 vs. Boston...LHP Tom Martin was acquired from Los Angeles at the trade deadline...J.D. Drew had a 22-game hitting streak from 6/30 to 7/26 and hit .351...Eli Marrero hit .439 and Charles Thomas hit .342...The pitching staff had a 2.42 ERA and the bullpen had an ERA of 2.00...John Smoltz recorded 10 saves and a 0.46 ERA...Furcal was named NL Player of the Week for July 5-11...Russ Ortiz was named NL Pitcher of the Month after going 5-0...Smoltz was named co-player of the week for July 26-Aug. 1. August – Atlanta continued its strong play, going 20-8 behind 35 homers and a .311 average from the offense...It marked just the second 20-win August since the franchise moved to Atlanta (1999, 21-7) and the first time in franchise history the team posted back-to-back 20-win months...Chipper Jones hit .337 with a club-high 11 homers and 29 RBI...Chipper also reached 20 homers for the ninth straight year, matching Hank Aaron's Atlanta mark...Entering the month, they had gone 15-1-3 in the last 19 preceding series...Braves outfielders did not make an error all month until Aug. 29...Rafael Furcal hit .341 with 12 stolen bases and Julio Franco hit .341 and was 4-for-9 as a pinch hitter...Juan Cruz posted a 1.88 ERA in 10 August games...Smoltz broke Gene Garber's franchise record with his 142nd career save on 8/19 at LA...Chipper Jones hit his 300th career home run on 8/16. September – Atlanta clinched the NL East title Sept. 24 with a come-from-behind, 8-7 win vs. Florida...Sept. 29, Bobby Cox became the ninth manager in Major League history to win 2,000 games...The bullpen registered a season-best six wins and 12 saves with a 3.26 ERA...Smoltz recorded his 40th save and 150th of his career on Sept. 21, becoming just the sixth player to have three straight 40+ save seasons...Andruw Jones hit his 250th career homer on Sept. 24...Chipper Jones passed Rabbit Maranville (1,696) for fourth on the franchise hit list on Sept. 13.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron re-wrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856); and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime (755). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), ninth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 14th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. Since December of 1989, he has served as Braves' Senior Vice President. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

THIRD BASE

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1978, Eddie Mathews was the only player in franchise history to play for the Braves on the Major League level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in 1953 (47) and '59 (46). He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, and 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more. Ten times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBI in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. In 1967 the Braves traded Mathews to Houston, where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. Eddie managed into the 1974 season, accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1. Eddie was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, he was moved to the outfield by Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped, as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBIs from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 and 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games (leading all players in votes in 1985), won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 26, 1981 through July 8, 1986. Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher, and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy holds 13 Atlanta franchise records including most home runs (371), RBI (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2000.

PITCHER

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in the summer of 1997, Phil Niekro was signed as a free agent in 1958, but didn't see his first major league action until 1964 in Milwaukee, starting out as a reliever. He saw limited playing time until 1967, when he became a permanent fixture on the roster through 1983. Niekro had 14 straight years with 10 or more wins until the strike shortened season of 1981. He posted three 20-plus win seasons with the Braves, with a career-high 23 in 1969, and logged over 300 innings four times, with a career high of 342 innings in 1979. From 1974 to 1980, he led the league in innings four times and was never out of the top five. In '73 he pitched a no-hitter to beat San Diego, 9-0, on August 5th at Atlanta Stadium. He became the oldest pitcher (46) to record a shutout with a four-hit, 8-0 victory on October 6, 1985, against Toronto as a Yankee. During his 24-year career, Niekro made five All-Star appearances, four as a Brave, won five Gold Gloves, and won 318 games, placing him 14th all-time. He is fifth all-time in innings pitched and eighth all-time in strikeouts. Niekro holds or shares 14 Atlanta career pitching records including: most games (689), complete games (226), innings pitched (4,533), games won (266), most strikeouts (2,855), most shutouts (43), and most hits (4,136). Inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973, Warren Spahn signed his first contract out of high school with the Braves for $150. He debuted for the Braves in 1942 and after ending the season in the minors, enlisted in the Army. Spahn returned to the Braves in 1946 and began to pitch his way into the record books, becoming the winningest left-hander in baseball history and fifth all-time with 363 total victories. He is also sixth all-time in shutouts and eighth all-time in innings pitched. Spahn won the Cy Young Award in 1957 while leading the league in victories and complete games. He was the Cy Young runner-up three times: in 1958, 1960, and 1961. Spahn posted 20 or more wins a National League-record 13 times. Eight of those years he led the league in wins. He was an N.L. All-Star 14 times, led the league three times in ERA, nine times in complete games, four times in innings pitched, four times in strikeouts, and four times in shutouts. Spahn's eight seasons leading the league in wins and nine seasons leading in complete games are both major league records. His streaks of five consecutive seasons (1957-61) leading the league in wins along with seven consecutive years (1957-63) leading in complete games are both major league records. Spahn threw two no-hitters in his career. His first was on September 16, 1960, at the age of 39, against Philadelphia. He allowed only two base runners in the 4-0 victory. The second no-hitter was a 1-0 victory over San Francisco on April 28, 1961. Spahn holds or shares nine franchise records including: most games started (635), complete games (374), innings pitched (5,046), games won (356), 20-win seasons (13), and shutouts (63). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

Turner Field (Opened 1997)

Grand Opening – April 4, 1997. Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-4.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August of 1997 and the site is now a parking lot.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75/85 and I-20.

Seating – Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the Lexus Level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper level does not go all the way around the park, providing the fans there with a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Field Dimensions – The stadium dimensions are 335' down the leftfield line, 400' to center field, 330' down the rightfield line, 380' to the leftfield power alley and 390' to the rightfield power alley.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Coca-Cola Sky Field – Coca-Cola Sky Field is a 23,000 square-foot baseball-themed attraction located above the leftfield club level at Turner Field. The distance is estimated at 435 feet from home plate and 80 feet above the field. A ball has yet to reach Sky Field during a regulation Braves' game.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – Turner Field features the largest high-definition video display in the world. The Mitsubishi Diamond Vision, installed in 2005, measures 71', 4" by 78', 8" and integrates live video, scoring information and animations onto a single full-color screen to display game content in vivid detail. Also installed in 2005, a Daktronics LED fascia video display wraps around Turner Field between the Terrace and Lexus levels. The 1,085' by 42" display interacts with the massive high-definition board, but also features its own video, graphics, animation, game information and advertising. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.

Postponed Games At Turner Field

There have been five games postponed in the eight-year history of Turner Field. One game, August 15, 2002 (vs. San Francisco), was declared a 3-3 tie after a two-hour, 33-minute rain delay in the 10th inning (that game is not included in the list of postponed games). The last postponed game occurred September 27, 2004 (vs. New York).

2005 Miscellaneous Information

2005 Braves Public Relations Staff

Walter Ward ♦ Director of Communications

Walter Ward joined the Braves organization in April 2004 as the team's Director of Communications, responsible for the Braves public relations, photography & broadcasting and print publications departments. Ward reports to Greg Hughes, senior vice president of public relations and communications for Turner Sports and the Braves.

From 1996 to 2004, Ward was Director of Public Relations for Turner Network Television (TNT) and tbs, two of basic cable's top-rated networks. There, he was in charge of public relations efforts for daily, weekly and annual ratings for TNT, tbs and Cartoon Network. He oversaw press outreach for tbs and TNT live programming events, including tribute concerts for John Lennon, Johnny Cash, Bob Marley and Brian Wilson, among others; the annual Screen Actors Guild Awards; and business and trade stories involving network marketing and branding efforts. While at TNT, Ward also served as public relations liaison to Turner Sports for sports-related programming, including the NBA, NASCAR and PGA Golf.

Ward came to Turner Broadcasting from Showtime Networks and Showtime Event Pay-Per-View and Showtime Championship Boxing in Los Angeles. Earlier, he handled personal and event publicity clients at Baker/Winokur/Ryder and Michael Levine Public Relations in Los Angeles.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Ward graduated from Wake Forest University with a bachelor's degree in economics (1985). Ward resides in Atlanta.

Brad Hainje ♦ Media Relations Manager

Brad Hainje is in his second season as the Braves' Media Relations Manager. Prior to joining the Braves front office in February 2004, he spent the previous six seasons (1998-2003) in the St. Louis Cardinals Media Relations Department.

Hainje is responsible for handling the Club's daily media requests, including player interviews, press credentials and press box operations. He also oversees the writing, editing and distributing of the team's annual media guide, daily game notes and baseball-related press releases.

Hainje, 35, previously spent two years (1993-95) as a Sports Information Assistant at his alma mater, Purdue University, and three years (1995-98) as Assistant Sports Information Director at Southwest Missouri State University. While at Southwest Missouri State, Hainje's publications won several national awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSida). His 1996, '97 and '98 SMS women's basketball media guides all received Best in the District honors, while the 1996 and '97 guides were named Fifth in the Nation and Best in the Nation, respectively, among all NCAA Division I schools.

A native of Logansport, Ind., Hainje graduated from Purdue in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in communication. He and his wife Michele have one son, Jack, and reside in Marietta.

Sue Vandiver ♦ Broadcasting & Photography Manager

Sue Vandiver enters her 13th season with the Braves and her fifth season as Broadcasting Manager. She joined the Club as an Executive Assistant in 1993 before being named the Broadcasting & Photography Manager.

As Broadcasting Manager, Vandiver is the point person for the Atlanta Braves broadcast partners and facilitates the day-to-day broadcast issues for all home and visiting broadcast entities. She also manages the Braves' in-house photography department by fulfilling photo requests, arranging game-action photography, photo shoots and maintaining the Braves photo library. Prior to joining the Braves, she worked at Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.

With the Braves, Vandiver has experienced 11 postseasons, including seven NL Championship Series, three World Series, and the 2000 All-Star Game in Atlanta.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Vandiver attended Mansfield University in Mansfield, Pa. Sue and her husband, Ronnie, reside on their farm in Moreland, Ga. They enjoy spending time with their four grown children, Scott, Holly, Blake, Lindsay and their granddaughter, Mallory.

Andrina "Andy" Pressley ♦ Publications Manager

Andy Pressley begins her ninth season with the Braves and sixth as Publications Manager. After living in Boston, Mass., for five years Pressley relocated to Atlanta in 1995 and started out working game day hospitality for the Braves. She was hired full time in 1996 and is currently responsible for a variety of print pieces, including pocket schedules, game day programs, yearbooks and ChopTalk. She is also responsible for the team's postseason publications.

Originally from Sacramento, Calif., Pressley graduated from UCLA with a bachelor's degree in history. While at UCLA she dove competitively for the Bruins as a member of the women's swimming and diving team.

Pressley and her husband, Bob, reside in Marietta.

Adam Liberman ♦ Publicist

Adam Liberman enters his sixth season as a member of the Atlanta Braves Public Relations Department. He joined the Club as its public relations trainee in 2000 before being named public relations assistant in January of 2001. He is responsible for researching and editing the team's regular and postseason media guides, updating team records, statistics and game notes, as well as assisting with press conferences and player interview requests.

Prior to joining the Braves, Liberman served as the Communications Director for the Akron Racers of the Women's Pro Softball League in 1999. In 1997, he worked as an intern in the Cleveland Indians' Class-AA Akron Aeros' media relations department.

Liberman is a 1998 cum laude graduate with a Bachelor's of Science in Journalism degree from Ohio University, where he was an active member of the sports information department.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Liberman lives in Atlanta.

Meagan Swingle ♦ Publicist

Meagan Swingle enters her fifth year as a member of the Braves Public Relations staff. Swingle joined the Braves in January 2000 as a corporate sales trainee and accepted a full-time position in the Public Relations Department in January 2001. Her responsibilities include publicizing the off-the-field programs and activities of the Braves.

Swingle, 28, grew up in the south Georgia town of Jesup, but she originally hails from state of Washington. She graduated magna cum laude from Clemson University in December 1999, with a degree in Speech and Communication and a minor in Journalism.

Swingle is a member of the Atlanta Clemson Club and Hands On Atlanta. Swingle volunteers with Turner's "Time To Read" program, mentoring at a local elementary school once a week throughout the school year. She resides in East Atlanta.

Anne McAlister ♦ Administrative Assistant

Anne McAlister is entering her fifth season as an Administrative Assistant in the Braves Public Relations Department. She is responsible for coordinating media credentials and providing administrative support to the director and the department.

Prior to joining the Braves in December 2000, she was employed as an Administrative Assistant with the Atlanta Hawks from 1992 to 1996, spent a year in Florida working for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Central Florida and came back to Atlanta and worked for Turner Sports from 1997 to 2000. She worked a number of years in ticket operations at Turner Field on a part-time basis and continues to work at Atlanta Hawks games, distributing media credentials and statistics.

A native of Tennessee, she is the proud mother of three, Frakes, Suzy and Jay, and the grandmother of Colin, Kristin, Blake, Colby and Brodie.

Beth Marshall ♦ Senior Advisor

Beth Marshall joined the Braves Communications Department as a senior advisor in August 2004. Prior to joining the Braves, she spent more than three years as Director of Corporate Communications for the PBA Tour in Seattle.

Marshall assists in all aspects of Braves communications, primarily focused on community affairs, sales and marketing and business affairs press outreaches.

Marshall has also worked in public relations for the WNBA league office, Planet Hollywood and its sports arm, Official All Star Cafe, Trump Plaza Hotel and Casino and the Philadelphia 76ers. She graduated with a degree in public relations from Harcum College outside of Philadelphia.

A native of Haverford, Pa., Marshall lives in the Inman Park section of Atlanta.

Media Services

Media Credentials: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news gathering agencies that have contacted the Public Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance of their assignment. To obtain media credentials, a written request must be made to the Braves' Public Relations Department (P.O. Box 4064, Atlanta, GA 30302) on appropriate letterhead stationery. Please specify the name(s) and function of the individual(s) being sent to cover the game. Identification will be required before credentials can be distributed. Credentials may be picked up at the Media Window located at the Southwest Gate of Turner Field on Bill Lucas Drive. Both the Media Window and Entrance open three hours prior to the game. Credentials are not issued to anyone under 18 years of age. Any party abusing this policy will forfeit their credential and all privileges.

Media Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in the Media Lot. The entrance to the Media Lot is located on the corner of Crew Street and Little Street (Little Street is off of Hank Aaron Drive, one block south of Bill Lucas Drive, directly behind the stadium). For further information, please contact a member of the Public Relations Department.

Media Entrance: The Media Entrance to Turner Field is located at the Southwest Gate, on Bill Lucas Drive near Pollard Boulevard. This is the side of the stadium farthest from downtown Atlanta, nearest the expressway. To obtain admittance to the stadium, members of the media must show one of the following: a Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or an Atlanta Braves season/daily credential.

Press Box: The Turner Field Press Box is located on the Press Level. A 40-foot walkway leads directly from the Press elevator to the entrance to the Press Box. The Press Box can accommodate 104 individuals. Credit card telephones are located on the tabletops of the Press Box and in the workroom, located directly behind the Press Box. Dining facilities are located in the Press Area. Live shots and still photographs are prohibited from the Press area. Proper credentials are required for admittance.

Clubhouses: Take the Press Elevator to the service level. Walk straight ahead down the corridor, turn left to the main tunnel. The Braves clubhouse entrance is about 150 feet to the right, the Visitors Clubhouse is to the left. Both clubhouses are closed to the media 45 minutes prior to and during the game. Following the game, the clubhouses re-open to the media within 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room and players' lounge are closed to the media at all times. Proper credentials must be displayed to access either clubhouse. Still Photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse without special permission. The clubhouses are limited to credentialed working media only.

Field: Enter the field via the Field Access corridor off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. The field and dugout areas must be cleared 45 minutes prior to first pitch. Pre-game broadcast interviews and live shots must be done on the warning track or in the dugout. Post-game live shots can be done from the warning track after the teams have left the field.

Dark Rooms: Reserved dark rooms are located across from the Braves clubhouse, next to the Braves family room, on the service level.

Photo Areas: A limited number of still photographer field level positions is available, subject to team discretion. There are also upper level wells and outfield locations. The Field Access corridor is off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouses without special permission.

Broadcast Booths: Located in the Press Box. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Home TV), Booth 2 (Home Radio), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Visiting Radio), Booth 5 (Spanish Radio-weekdays only), Booth 6 (Reserved), Booth 7 (Reserved). To obtain use of a reserved booth, please contact either the Public Relations or Broadcasting departments.

2005 Braves Radio/TV

The Atlanta Braves, tbs, Turner South, FSN South, and Braves Radio Network WGST-AM (640) and WKLS-FM (96.1) will team up in 2005 to bring Braves fans the best and most comprehensive sports broadcasting in Major League Baseball. tbs, or its predecessor, WTCG, has been carrying Braves games since 1973. tbs reaches more than 89 million homes. FSN South, in more than seven million homes, has broadcast select Braves regular-season and spring training games on a southeastern regional basis the past 12 seasons. WGST-AM (640), WKLS-FM (96.1) will be the 2005 home station of the Atlanta Braves radio network. WGST will carry all 162 regular-season games and a number of spring training games. The Braves radio network includes about 150 affiliates.

Braves Broadcasters

Skip Caray

The 2005 Major League Baseball season marks Skip Caray's 30th calling games for the Atlanta Braves on tbs. In addition, Caray serves as an analyst for Braves coverage, for the sixth consecutive year on Turner South, Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.'s regional entertainment network.

In 2004, Caray was inducted into the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame, along with fellow Braves announcer Pete Van Wieren. Caray is also the voice of the Braves on WGST-AM (640) and WLKS-FM (96.1) radio. In 2000, Atlanta Mayor Bill Campbell declared July 30th "Skip Caray and Pete Van Wieren Day" in honor of their 25 years of broadcasting Braves games.

Caray was nominated for a 1994 Cable ACE Award in the Sports Play-By-Play category. He joined Turner Broadcasting system, Inc. (tbs) in 1972 as the voice of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and was added to the Braves telecasts in 1976. He was play-by-play announcer for the first two seasons (1990 and 1991) of TNT's Sunday night NFL coverage and served as play-by-play announcer for baseball on tbs' coverage of the 1990 Goodwill Games.

Caray served as the play-by-play announcer for NBC's Major League Baseball Playoff coverage in 2000. Caray came to broadcasting naturally as the son of Harry Caray, the former Chicago Cubs Hall-of-Fame play-by-play announcer. Skip began his broadcasting career at KMOX-Radio in St. Louis, MO, as host of a 15-minute high school sports show and as a sportscaster for high school basketball games. He later joined his father as a color commentator for University of Missouri football.

He began broadcasting baseball for the Tulsa Oilers of the Southern League in 1963. He also has announced for the Atlanta Crackers in baseball's Southern League and basketball for St. Louis University. He joined the NBA's St. Louis Hawks broadcasting team in 1967, moving to Atlanta with the team the following year.

Caray has called everything from Goodwill Games baseball and motoball to primetime college football and Atlanta Flames hockey.

He has been recognized with six Georgia Sportscaster-of-the Year awards from the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, as well as a Georgia-area Emmy.

He devotes many hours to volunteer work, serving as a board member of Camp Twin Lakes, a camp for children with special needs and works with the Hemophilia Association.

Born in St. Louis, Caray is a graduate of The University of Missouri, with honors in journalism. Skip and his wife, Paula, live in Atlanta. They have four children: Chip, Cindy, Shayelyn and Josh.

Pete Van Wieren

The 2005 Major League Baseball season marks Van Wieren's 30th as a play-by-play announcer for the Atlanta Braves on tbs, tying him with Skip Caray for seniority on the Braves announcing team. In addition, Van Wieren calls the action for the Braves games on Turner South, Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.'s regional entertainment network. This is the sixth consecutive year Van Wieren will call games on Turner South.

In 2004, Van Wieren was inducted into the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame, along with fellow announcer Skip Caray. Van Wieren also serves as the Atlanta Braves play-by-play announcer for WGST-AM (640) and WKLS-FM (96.1). In 2000, Atlanta Mayor Bill Campbell declared July 30th "Skip Caray and Pete Van Wieren Day" in honor of their 25 years of broadcasting Braves games.

Since joining the network in 1975, he has covered the Atlanta Flames of the National Hockey League, the Hawks and the Atlanta Falcons NFL pre-season football. He also served as a sports reporter for CNN and served as a play-by-play announcer on tbs' Big Ten Conference college football games.

Prior to joining Turner, he began his broadcasting career working as the play-by-play man for the Tidewater Tides of the International League for two years. He has also broadcast hockey, college and professional basketball and college and professional football. He also has been a sportscaster for WDHO-TV, Toledo, Ohio; WNBH-AM/FM/TV and WINR-AM/TV, both in Binghamton, NY; WPRW-AM/FM, Manassas, Va.; and WEER-AM/FM, Warrenton, Va.

Van Wieren, who was born in Rochester, NY, attended Cornell University. He won his eighth Georgia Sportscaster of the Year Award from the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association in 1994, marking the seventh consecutive year he won the honor (1980, 1988-94). He was dubbed Atlanta's Favorite Sportscaster in 1977 by the Atlanta Journal.

Pete and his wife Elaine live in Alpharetta, Ga. They have two children, Steven and Jon.

Don Sutton

Hall-of-Fame pitcher Don Sutton joined Turner Sports as an analyst for Braves telecasts on tbs during the 1989 season, after a stellar playing career that spanned 23 seasons. In addition, for the sixth consecutive year, Sutton serves as an analyst for Braves games televised on Turner South, Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.'s regional entertainment network.

He has also served as a course reporter on tbs' professional golf coverage, working the Hawaiian Open, PGA Championship and PGA Grand Slam of Golf, as well as TNT's coverage of the Sarazen World Open Championship.

His network broadcasting experience included pre and post-game analysis for NBC's 1987 League Championship Series coverage.

His Major League Baseball pitching career was highlighted by 324 wins with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Houston Astros, Milwaukee Brewers and California Angels. Sutton spent 15 seasons with the Dodgers, beginning in 1966. He joined the Astros as a free agent in 1981. Sutton was traded to Milwaukee in August 1982, where he pitched three seasons before being traded to Oakland in December 1984. He was traded to California in September 1985 and retired in January 1988.

One of the most durable pitchers of the modern era, appearing in more than 750 games and completing nearly 180 during his career, Sutton's personal bests included 21 wins (1976), 293 innings pitched (1969), 41 games (1969), 2.21 ERA (1980 - led NL), 40 starts (1974), 217 strikeouts (1969) and 18 complete games (1972), all with the Dodgers.

Sutton ranks seventh on baseball's all-time strikeout list with 3,574. Sutton was 4-1 with a 2.02 ERA in seven League Championship Series games, and 2-3 with a 5.26 ERA in eight World Series games. In the 1974 postseason, he was 3-0 with a 1.50 ERA and 25 strikeouts in four games. He also posted a 1-0 record in four all-star appearances without allowing a run.

Sutton was elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in January 1998. He was named National League Rookie-of-the-Year by Sporting News in 1966, going 12-12 with a 2.99 ERA and 209 strikeouts for the Dodgers. He was named the Texas League Player-of-the-Year in 1965 at Albuquerque with 15-6 record and 2.78 ERA.

Born in Clio, Ala., Don, his wife Mary and their daughter, Jacqueline, reside in Roswell, Ga. Don has two other children, Daron and Staci.

Joe Simpson

Joe Simpson, who joined Turner Sports in 1992, is in his 14th season as a tbs announcer for the Atlanta Braves. In addition, he works as an analyst for Braves coverage on Turner South, Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.'s regional network. This year marks the sixth consecutive year he will call games on Turner South. Simpson also calls Braves games for WGST-AM (640) and WKLS-FM (96.1).

Simpson played professionally for 11 seasons, beginning in 1973 when he was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the third round. He joined the Seattle Mariners in 1979 before being traded to the Kansas City Royals in 1983. An outfielder and first baseman throughout his professional career, he retired from the California Angels organization following the 1984 season. He had his best season in 1979 when he hit .283 in 120 games for the Mariners. Simpson worked as an analyst on Seattle Mariners telecasts for five years before joining Turner Sports. Simpson was named "Georgia Sports Broadcaster of the Year" in 1995.

An All-American outfielder and first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson was born in Purcell, Oklahoma.

Joe and his wife Kathy live in Marietta, Ga. They have two children, Meg and Gabe.

Chip Caray

The 2005 season marks Chip Caray's first season as a play-by-play announcer for tbs and Turner South's Major League Baseball coverage. He will join his father Skip Caray, as well as Pete Van Wieren, Don Sutton and Joe Simpson to call the MLB action on both networks.

Caray served as the play-by-play announcer for seven seasons (1998-2004) for Chicago Cubs games on WGN. His baseball resume also includes one season as the radio play-by-play announcer for Minnesota's Orlando (AA) affiliate in 1990, two years (1991-92) broadcasting the Atlanta Braves and three campaigns (1993-95) with the Seattle Mariners.

Caray spent five years (1996-2000) as a member of the Fox Network's Saturday baseball coverage, including three years as a studio host.

He is the third generation of Carays to serve as a play-by-play announcer, after his father Skip and grandfather Harry, who was the play-by-play voice of the Cubs from 1982 to 1997. A member of the Hall of Fame, Harry spent 53 seasons as a major league broadcaster. On May 13, 1991, the three generations of Carays worked together on a Chicago Cubs/Atlanta Braves game.

His broadcast career also includes nine seasons as the television play-by-play voice of the NBA's Orlando Magic and stints calling both University of Florida and Florida State University football and basketball games for the Sunshine Network.

Caray graduated from the University of Georgia in 1987 and began his career with weekend TV sports anchor stints in Panama City, Fla., and Greensboro, NC.

He and his wife, Susan, have three children: Summerlyn, Christopher and Stefan.

Ron Gant

Ron Gant joins the Braves announce team as an analyst for 17 games of Braves tbs Xtra.

Gant, 40, began his professional career with the Braves in 1983. He reached the majors in 1987, and in 1991 became just the third player in history to post back-to-back 30-30 seasons (30 home runs - 30 stolen bases). He was also among the league leaders in home runs, doubles, RBI, runs and stolen bases, leading the Braves to the World Series in 1991, just one season after they had baseball's worst record. Gant finished among the top-10 in voting for the National League Most Valuable Player Award in 1991 while with the Braves and again in 1995 with the Cincinnati Reds. While with the Reds in 1995, he earned an All-Star selection, as well as NL Comeback Player of the Year honors from Sporting News. In 1996, Gant again was named an NL All-Star and led the St. Louis Cardinals to within one game of a World Series berth.

In addition, to the Braves, Reds and Cardinals, Gant also played for the Philadelphia Phillies, Anaheim Angels, Colorado Rockies, Oakland Athletics and San Diego Padres. He played in 1,832 games in his 17 big-league seasons. Gant played in the postseason six times with the Braves, Reds, Cardinals and Athletics. His career totals include 1,652 hits, 1,080 runs, 321 homers, 1,008 RBI and a .256 career batting average.

Gant is a native of Victoria, Texas, and currently resides in Atlanta.

2005 Braves tbs SAP Broadcasters

Pete Manzano

Pete Manzano enters his fourth season broadcasting the tbs games in Spanish. He began his career in his native Puerto Rico in 1963. His radio background includes calls of the 1976 Olympic Games in Montreal and Winter League Baseball in Puerto Rico. His television experience includes broadcasts of world championship boxing and serving as sportscaster at WAPA-TV in Puerto Rico.

Manzano was part of the Braves International Radio Network broadcasting team from 1992 to 1995. From 1991 through 1995, Manzano worked for a joint venture between the Braves and CNN as a broadcaster for the International Radio Network.

Manzano, who resides in Jonesboro, GA, has four children: Pedro Jose, Manuel Antonio, Pedro Antonio, and April Ann.

Fernando Palacios

Fernando Palacios begins his third season as part of the tbs SAP broadcasting team. Palacios was a catcher for three and a half years in the Boston Red Sox farm system under the supervision of Bill Slack, Dick Bernardino and Darrel Johnson.

In his homeland Puerto Rico, he was a member of the Caguas Criollos Baseball Club, the 1973-74 Puerto Rican Winter Baseball League and Caribbean Series Champions under the leadership of former big leaguer Bobby Wine. He also participated in the same league with the Arecibo Wolves BC under the managerial team of Jack McKeon and Steve Boros.

Palacios graduated from El Pilar High School in Puerto Rico, where he played basketball, baseball and volleyball. He earned MVP honors in basketball and baseball in his junior and senior years, leading both teams to their respective championships. He was the recipient of the athlete of the year award in his senior year.

He and his wife Norma reside in McDonough, and have five children: Fernando Karlo, Alexandra, Veronica, Rafael and Daniel.

2005 Braves FSN South Broadcasters

Bob Rathbun

Bob Rathbun is in his ninth year in the booth for FSN South and the Braves. He also works on the Atlanta Hawks telecasts with Mark Price and Grant Long.

He began his career as sports director for WSTP Radio in Salisbury, N.C., in 1973. Bob has called college baseball, basketball and football for over 10 years including CBS's 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball, ESPN's 1996 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament and ESPN's 1995 College World Series. Other broadcast experience includes Baltimore Orioles telecasts, ACC men's basketball and Washington Bullets basketball for Home Team Sports. Rathbun has also done play-by-play for the Tidewater Tides, Detroit Tigers and the Richmond Braves. He is a six-time Virginia Sportscaster of the Year, as voted by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. Rathbun was honored with his first Georgia Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1998.

Bob and his wife Marybeth reside in Dunwoody, Ga. They have two children, Court and Grace.

Tom Paciorek

A former Atlanta Braves player (1976-1978) and 17-year broadcasting veteran, Tom Paciorek returns for his fifth year with Bob Rathbun in the booth as FSN South's analyst for its Braves telecast package.

Five years ago, Paciorek worked several Detroit Tigers games for FSN. He spent the previous 12 years as an analyst for Chicago White Sox telecasts on FSN and WGN.

In 15-plus seasons as a player, Paciorek played with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Braves, Seattle Mariners, White Sox, New York Mets and Texas Rangers. He posted a lifetime batting average of .282 with 86 home runs and 503 RBI in 1,392 games.

Paciorek's first broadcasting experience came in 1984 with the White Sox and again in 1987 with the Rangers, both occurring when he was on the disabled list.

A native of Detroit, Paciorek attended the University of Dayton on a football scholarship and later transferred to the University of Houston, where he became a two-time baseball All-American and a two-time football honorable mention All-American.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Major League Service: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Disabled Lists

15-Day Disabled List: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-Day Disabled List: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

Regulation Game

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Turner Field Ground Rules

Dugouts: Dugouts are bounded by guard rails and any ball hitting guard rails or netting is IN PLAY. Ball hitting netting on home plate side of either dugout is IN PLAY. Ball hitting facing over either dugout is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Catch may be made in either dugout.

Backstop: Ball lodging in padding is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder.

Canvas on Tarp Drum: Catch may be made on canvas - Ball lodged behind or under canvas is dead. ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Batted ball lodging behind or under canvas - TWO BASES.

Foul Poles: Ball hitting any part of screen area supported by poles down left or right field line - HOME RUN.

Outfield Fence: Batted ball going over yellow line on top of outfield fence - HOME RUN.

Major League Waiver Rule

Baseball's waiver year runs from November 11 to November 10 with three waiver periods within each year.

First Waiver Period: November 11 to 30th day of subsequent regular season.

Second Waiver Period: 31st day of regular season to July 31.

Third Waiver Period: August 1 to November 10.

To make a trade with a National or American League Club, major league waivers are required only from August 1 until the day following the close of the regular season. Waivers are not required during any other time of year.

The contract of a player placed on waivers may be claimed by any other major league club. If a claim is made and the club requesting waivers does not withdraw the request, the contract shall be assigned to the claiming club. If more than one club in the same league files a claim, assignment shall be made to the claiming club of the lowest standing in the league. If claiming clubs are in different leagues, the preference for the waiver claim shall always go to clubs in the same league as the requesting club and to the claiming club of the lowest standing in that league.

Major League Waivers may be requested prior to 2:00 P.M. est., Monday through Friday (holidays excepted) and claims may be filed until 2:00 P.M. on the third business day following the date of the waiver request. If no claims are filed, the secured waivers are in effect through the close of the particular waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers may be requested at any time without restriction.

Special Waivers (Sept. 1 to 30th day of subsequent regular season) or Outright Waivers (31st day of regular season to Aug. 31) must be secured prior to making an outright assignment of a player contract to a National Association Club. If secured, Special Waivers are in effect for seven calendar days and Outright Waivers are in effect until the close of the waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers, Special Waivers and Outright Waivers are irrevocable and may not be withdrawn after they have been requested.

In some cases, Major League Waivers must be secured prior to the optional assignment of a player contract to the National Association. Generally, waivers are required as of the third anniversary of the date the player first reported for Major League service, less one year for each option charged to the player at the time he first reported.

BRAVES IN THE HALL OF FAME

A total of 44 players, managers and executives with ties to the Boston/Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves organization have earned election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Eight of those 44 spent a majority of their careers in a Braves uniform including Hank Aaron, Hugh Duffy, Rabbit Maranville, Eddie Mathews, Kid Nichols, Phil Niekro, Warren Spahn and Vic Willis. For a complete list of Boston/Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves in the Hall of Fame, visit the Hall of Famers team pages at www.baseballhalloffame.org.

NOTABLE BRAVES ARTIFACTS AT THE HALL

- Cap worn by Bobby Cox on September 29, 2004 to earn his 2,000th managerial win and a ticket from the game.
- Ball and jersey from Greg Maddux's 15th win of the 2003 season, establishing a major league record of 15+ wins in 16 consecutive seasons.
- Rafael Furcal's cap from his unassisted triple play on August 10, 2003, marking the 11th unassisted triple play in history.
- Bat used by Javier Lopez in setting the major league record for the most single-season home runs by a catcher (42) on September 27, 2003.
- Hall of Famer Hank Aaron's locker from Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.
- Uniform and cap worn by Hall of Famer Eddie Mathews when he managed the Braves.
- Bats used by Hank Aaron to hit his 500th, 600th, and 714th career home runs.
- Ball from each of Hall of Fame left-hander Warren Spahn's no-hitters in 1960 and 1961.
- Ball from Lew Burdette's no-hit game on August 18, 1960.

HALL OF FAME ROAD TRIP

Baseball As America, the Hall of Fame and Museum's first-ever national exhibit tour examining the relationship between baseball and American culture, continues with its fourth year in 2005. The exhibit opened in New York City in 2002 and will visit 10 world-class museums across the country through 2006.

In 2005, the tour will visit the Missouri Historical Society in St. Louis, MO, the Museum of Fine Arts in Houston, TX, and the Oakland Museum of California in Oakland, CA. The final tour stop will be at the Henry Ford Museum in Detroit, MI, in 2006. For complete details, please visit the tour Web site at: baseballasamerica.org. The national tour is sponsored by Ernst & Young.

A LOOK AHEAD TO 2006

Ballots for the 2006 Hall of Fame/BBWAA election will be distributed in early December with results from the voting scheduled to be announced in early January 2006. A partial list of first-year candidates for election include: Will Clark, Alex Fernandez, Gary Gaetti, Dwight Gooden, Ozzie Guillen, Juan Guzman, Orel Hershiser, Jaime Navarro and Lance Johnson.
